DEDICATION

*L*IFE is expansion and not repression. It is a matter of choosing rather than refusing, of doing rather than denying. In a spirit that exemplified this truth, the dauntless pioneers faced the jaws of death and entered the veil of darkness to give us our heritage, California.

Time has inscribed its accomplishments in the annals of history, where we find the upward course of growth, development and progress. More important than these, however, is the spirit that nurtured and promoted these dreams of expansion to ripe maturity—the spirit that gave California her honor, her ideals, and her traditions.

California is rich in her many pioneers—pioneers who from their treasure-house of life have given in abundance their energy and their substance to realize this dream we call California. We cherish our memories of these valiant men and women who have written their names in indelible letters on the pages of our history.

It is with a sense of deep respect and reverence that this school dedicates this volume of Whittier Union High School history to the spirit of our California pioneers.

PROLOGUE

THINK for a while of the days of '49, filled with reckless adventure, hardships, and dangers of the wilderness. Think of the early pioneers making their way over well-nigh insurmountable barriers. The weak are falling by the way. It is a survival of the fittest who in their struggle are training their muscles, brains, and nerves so that they are able to meet and overcome any difficulty within the range of human possibility.

Because we, the youth of California, love to recall the vivid and romantic scenes of these early days and because we honor these men who fought with true pioneer spirit, in their honor we choose the spirit of '49 as the theme of Volume XIX of the Cardinal and White.

Our aim has been to picture one year of our student life and activity in its entirety. May this book, in memory, bring back to the reader scenes of happy associations and activities of the past year. If it does so, we of the staff shall consider our threefold purpose achieved: Service to our school, tribute to the history of our state, and the complete record of 1928-1929 at Whittier Union High School.

Message

Principal

“THESE ARE the things I prize
And hold of dearest worth:
Light of the sapphire skies,
Peace of the silent hills,
Shelter of forests, comfort of the grass,
Music of birds, murmur of little rills,
Shadows of cloud that swiftly pass,
And after showers,
The smell of flowers
And of the good brown earth,—
And best of all, along the way, friendship and mirth.”

—HENRY VAN DYKE.

Message

Vice Principal

GRAY AT eventide, speaks of “hearing the murmur of many waters not audible in the daytime.” Thus it is with you, members of the Class of 1929, upon the eve of graduation. The voices of opportunity now challenge you and fall upon understanding ears. Four years ago, when you were entering Freshmen, these voices would have passed unheard. This change is due to the development within yourselves. You have all had an equal chance; yet each of you varies as abilities, efforts, and aims have varied. Whether you heed the call of industry or commerce, social service or training preparatory to a professional career, your progress will depend upon the quality of your preparation, your talent, your honesty, and your ideas of responsibility and service.

Whatever call you respond to, may your life's experiences be rich and fulfill your every aim.

—R. Pearl Simpson.

*A*MONG the five miracles of achievement in the early commercial and industrial progress of California was the building of the Central Pacific Railroad across the Sierra Nevada Mountains. The president of this railroad was Leland Stanford, a man of high ideals and merit whose greatest ambition was to have a "road big enough to keep one hundred locomotives busy."

Since there were so many difficulties to be encountered in those days, he was indeed a man worthy of note who had so efficiently organized and superintended the construction. The railroad was finally completed after several years of labor under great difficulties. Leland Stanford drove the last spike.

FACULTY

WE, AS STUDENTS of Whittier Union High School, wish to express our sincere gratitude and deep appreciation to our teachers. They have been our counsellors and our friends. It is they who have devoted their time to helping us in our exploration to find that precious treasure—finer knowledge.

They have supported willingly all our school activities, our plays and benefits, as well as our social fetes.

Our faculty has taken a special interest in developing the resources of each student's mind. All the members of each department have helped the students to find a mine of wealth in their studies.

OUR DEPARTMENTS

The history department has helped the students to study with understanding and intelligence the social and political problems of yesterday and today.

The English department has promoted clear thinking, an adequate and correct expression of ideas, and an appreciation of literature.

The domestic science and domestic art departments have trained girls in preparation of food and in making of clothes.

The purpose of the physical education department has been to instill in the boys and girls the ideals of good sportsmanship and fair play.

The science department has endeavored to teach the practical value of science in relation to our common, everyday life.

The language department has offered studies which furnish a key to the treasures of a civilization other than our own.

The mathematics department has provided some of the best opportunities for logical, clear thinking.

The art department has helped many students to find that particular field for which they are best fitted.

The dramatics department has developed students' ability in dramatic art.

Of our music department, one might say: "Music is to the mind what the plow is to the soil. It stirs up thought, makes the brain more active, and life more harmonious."

These rich fields before us are inviting us to explore them and by our own initiative to claim and develop the treasures we desire.

Executive Committee

THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE of Whittier Union High School is a committee chosen every year and composed of members of the student body and faculty. It is chosen for the purpose of transacting all business for the student body that is not important enough to require a vote of all of the students. It passes on all bills that are to be paid with student body funds; it appoints the student managers of the athletic teams; it has the power to discuss amendments to the constitution and to decide whether they should be brought before the students for adoption; and this year it was instrumental in writing and bringing before the student body for its approval the new constitution.

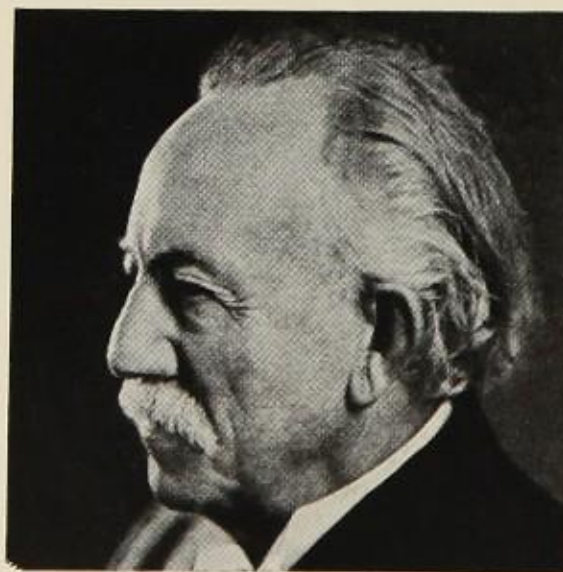

Those who composed the executive committee of 1928-29 were the following members of the faculty: Mr. Earl Chapman, Chairman; Miss Laura Frankenfield, Miss Hope Romani, Mr. Donald Douglas, Mr. Walter Wegner, Mr. Don Cole, and Mr. Alvin Whitcomb, and these students: Paul Batson, Welman Haworth, Evelyn Johnson, Kenneth Craig, Howard Church, and Richard Harris.

Senior Class

WE, THE SENIOR CLASS of Whittier Union High School, have changed our aspect of four years ago to one of more or less intelligence. From our freshman year on we have tried to look worthy of approval in the eyes of our advisers and leaders.

We have been ever-ready supporters of our class and have also taken an active part in the Student Body. Our whole spirit has been in every thing we have attempted, and we are proud to say that cooperation on the part of all of us has never been lacking in our undertakings. Each member of the class may be duly praised for the whole-hearted assistance he has rendered for the benefit of not only the class but the Student Body as a whole.

Our scholastic standard has been excellent. Many of the students are graduating with very high honors. The banquet that we sponsored in honor of the class of 1928 was such a success that we feel that we have social as well as scholastic ability. We pride ourselves on being leaders in the athletic department. The boys have gone out and played with untiring efforts to make this season a glorious success.

Like our mighty pioneer fathers, we have struggled on, plodding faithfully and giving the best that was in us to gain our goal. Eureka! We have found it! But it is only a new beginning. Before our forefathers lay a new, strange, incomparable vastness. So it is with us. We are on the brink of a new life, and we enter it with hope and anticipation in our hearts. We feel sure that there is nothing too great for us to overcome. With this courageous outlook on life we shall be enabled to conquer any obstacle that may confront us.

The Lower Classes

THE ACTIVITIES of the classes of our school may be likened to the life in early gold-rush days of California. A horde of Freshmen, enthusiastic seekers after the gold of knowledge, pours in each year, and their efforts to plan their studies are like struggles to locate claims. Finding classes and adjusting new conditions are similar to the pioneers' effort to make homes during the claim-developing period.

Progress through successive school stages—the Sophomore, Junior, and Senior years—smooths rough edges; and classroom work, athletics, music, and dramatics offer many opportunities to collect nuggets of knowledge to be stored away, forming riches to be drawn upon later in life.

Now as we Seniors abandon our claims, we know they will be ably developed by those who follow our trail.

Alumni Association

DURING the year of 1928-29 the Alumni of Whittier Union High School have been particularly active.

During Christmas vacation a group of members of the class of 1928 staged a dance at the East Whittier Woman's Club House, which was attended by approximately one hundred alumni and students of Whittier High School.

In April the class of 1928 held a meeting in the library of the High School. They voted to create a live-wire Alumni Association, one which would function and be a benefit not only to its members but also to the school. An executive committee of five persons was elected with Harold F. Pettee, Jr., as president; Paul L. Johnson as vice president, Roberta McKenzie as secretary, and Charles A. H. Thomson and Glen Rowe as members at large. Later, at an executive committee meeting, it was voted to increase the committee to seven members with a permanent secretary and a permanent treasurer. Roberta McKenzie was made permanent secretary; and Tolbert B. Moorhead, Jr. was made permanent treasurer. The edition of the alumni newspaper is yet to be selected.

As we go to press, an active program is being outlined by the executive committee. A dance in honor of the Senior Class of 1929 will be held in June. The Class of 1929 has already applied for membership in the organization.

The mailing address of the Association is Box 233, Whittier.

Because of her superior work at Mills, Elsie has been awarded a scholarship for the coming year. She is one of six girls to whom the scholarships were given.

William Behnke, a member of the class of '27 has been awarded many scholarship honors during his two years at Yale College. Bill has won for himself scholarships for his full four years. He also by virtue of another scholarship honor will become editor of the Yale Blue Book during his senior year.

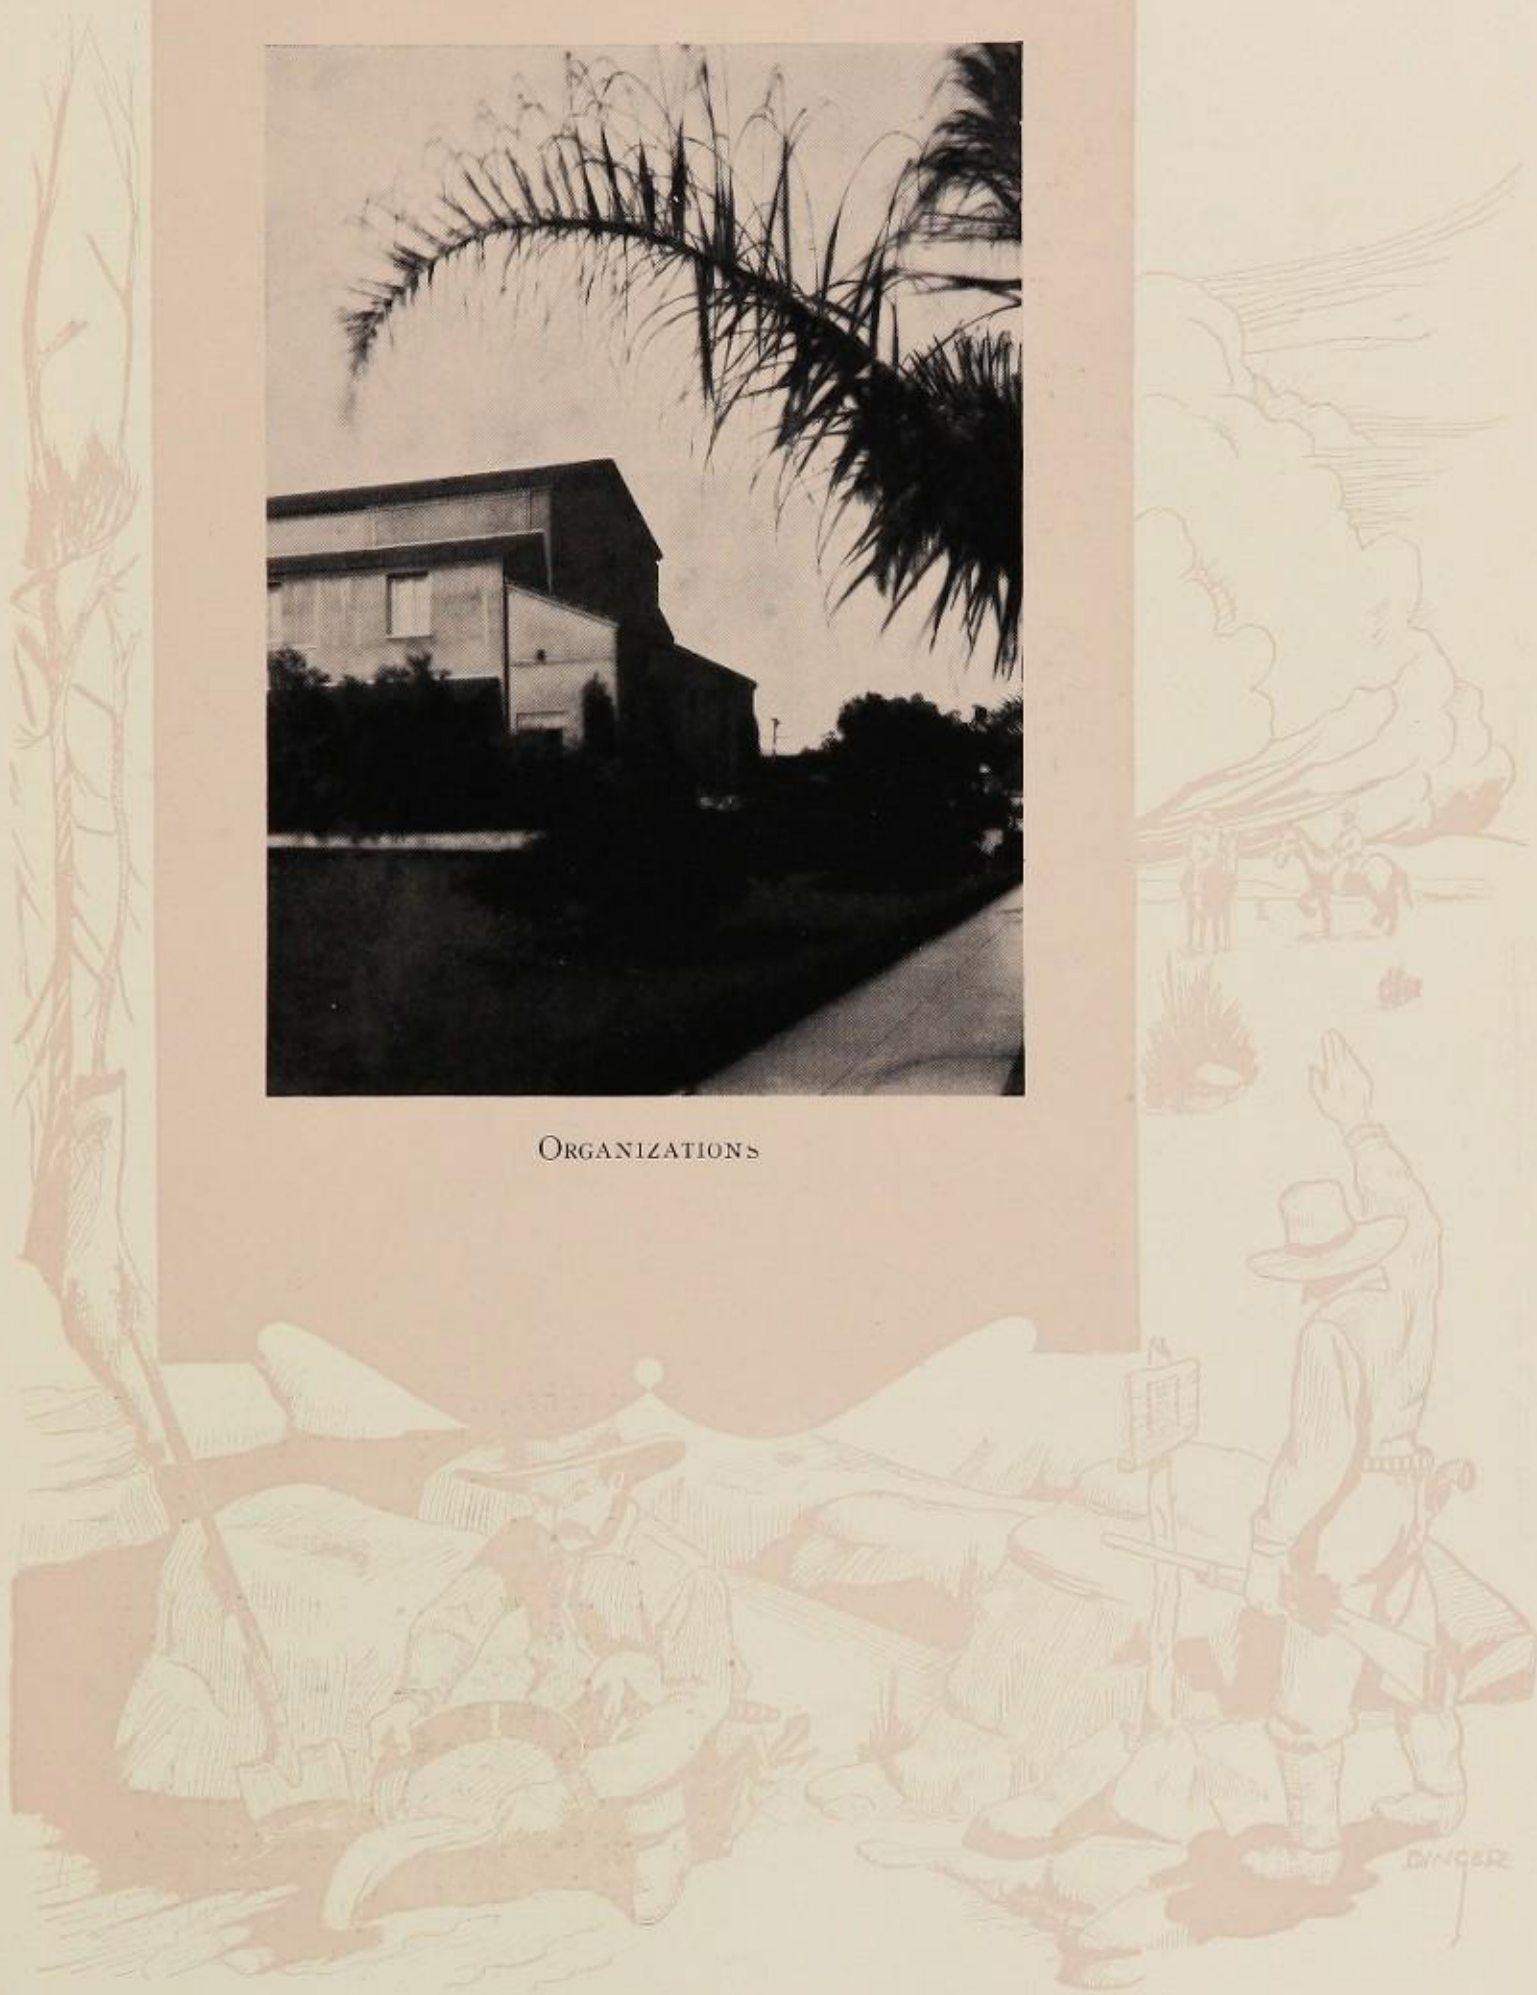

IT DOES not seem possible that one man of no particular distinction could change the whole course of California history and set the world agog, but two weeks before the treaty by which California formally became a part of the United States was signed, such an event occurred. In one of the innumerable canyons of the Sierra Nevadas, a man, named James Marshall, chanced upon some glittering particles in the tailrace of a saw mill belonging to his employer, James A. Sutter. Before the ink of the treaty was dry, the news of Marshall's discovery of gold had begun to set an eager world in ferment and to change the whole course of California History.

THE C. & W Staff comprises a group of individuals, chosen because of their executive ability, their scholarship, and their skill in writing, in art, or in typing to represent W. U. H. S. in its Student Body publications. The members of the staff have worked hard all during the year and deserve much more credit than is commonly allotted them on the part of the Student Body.

The C. & W. started under a handicap at the first of the year because of inexperience in newspaper work. However, Whittier High may feel safe next year under the leadership of Richard Harris, Associate Editor of the Weekly and Malcolm Tuft, Associate Editor of the Annual. With the experience these boys have had and with more study, they should enable Whittier to publish one of the best annuals and newspapers in the Southwest.

The Administration and Faculty have cooperated with the Cardinal & White in every possible way, and we wish to express our sincere appreciation here for their generous assistance.—H. C.

Girls' League

THE GIRLS' LEAGUE of the Whittier Union High School has had one of its most successful years of service, good friendship, and social activities. The League was organized in 1917 to further the spirit of good fellowship and democracy, to instill high ideals of service and good citizenship, and to encourage those activities which promote the interest of the girls.

The splendid work of the League is carried out through the executive board, composed of the officers of the League and the chairmen of the standing committees, and through general assemblies of the girls.

Razor Club

"The Crest and crowning of all good, Life's final star in Brotherhood."

IN EVERY school there is a real need for the friendly association of students with students and of teachers with students. For the past six years Whittier High has recognized this necessity through a great boys' organization known as the Razor Club. All meetings are conducted in an informal and friendly manner and serve to promote high achievements, constructive service to the school and community, unending generosity, high morals, and clean sportsmanship.

Inasmuch as this club is known as the Razor Club and the credentials for belonging to this organization are ability to grow a beard and own a razor, a beard-growing contest was held. Great interest and enthusiasm were aroused, not only among the boys, but also among the girls and faculty.

The Philomathean Society

THE PHILOMATHEAN SOCIETY of Whittier Union High School was organized seven years ago for the purpose of creating higher standards of scholarship among the students. There is no regular time for meeting, but the members assemble at least once a semester to elect new officers.

To become a member of the society a student must have the required ten points, eight of which must be in major subjects. A grade of one counts three points; a grade of two counts one point; and a grade of two in physical education counts one point if the grade is recommended by the teacher.

At the close of the senior year a pupil may receive a Scholarship Federation pin if he has been a member of the society for twelve quarters, two of which must be in his senior year.

In December six members of the society attended a Scholarship Federation Convention at Los Angeles where they were the guests of Polytechnic High School. After an inspiring meeting they enjoyed a luncheon at the Elite Banquet Hall.

One feature of this organization is an annual "ditch day." This year the holiday was celebrated at one of the popular beaches early in the fourth quarter of the school year.

Latina Sodalitas

THE LATIN CLUB, Latina Sodalitas, was organized in 1924 for the purpose of creating a greater interest in the study of Latin by combining it with social activities.

Anyone of W. U. H. S. who is a Latin student or formerly was one is eligible to become a member of this society.

The club meets at 3:20 on the second Monday of every month. Programs are carried out in an interesting way by means of Latin playlets, Latin songs, and reports on the various phases of Roman culture and on the value of the study of Latin today.

One event of unusual interest was a Roman Wedding presented by Miss George's second year Latin students. A potluck supper was also an outstanding social event of the year. A Roman banquet is planned, which is to be held before the end of the semester.

Under the leadership of Miss Steck, the club has been voted a greater success this year than in any preceding year.

The club officers were as follows:

Senior Hi-Y

THE YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION of Whittier High meets every Monday night at 6:30 for supper, after which the members are privileged to listen to some of the most prominent and best educated speakers in Southern California.

The purpose of this organization is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character. Those wishing to join the Hi-Y must present their names to the club to be voted upon.

The Hi-Y in beginning its 1929 activities put out football schedules so that all the students of Whittier High might know where all games were to be held and be able to keep the correct scores. These were greatly appreciated by the student body.

Faculty Night was one of the special evenings enjoyed by the Hi-Y club this year. The next special evening, which was the most enjoyable of the year, was the Girls' Night.

In the annual Y. M. C. A. membership drive the Hi-Y club took an active part in reaching the goal set for this year.

During Christmas vacation the boys painted and reconstructed old toys, which made little boys and girls happy Christmas morning.

The Whittier High-Y boys were hosts to the Southern California Older Boys' Conference held in Whittier this year. Leonard Stanfield, President of the Hi-Y, was honored by being appointed Chairman of the conference.

As the Hi-Y club neared the closing of 1929, the boys honored their mothers by inviting them to a banquet. This night was known as Mothers' Night.

In the closing of the most progressive year in the history of the Senior Hi-Y club, a beach party was greatly enjoyed by the club members and girl friends.

The Junior Hi-Y

THE JUNIOR HI-Y has the same aim as the Senior Hi-Y and is composed of lower classmen. Under the leadership of Hal Wood, the club has been very active both on the campus and at the local Y. M. C. A. A farewell party was given Ezra Ellis, former boys' work secretary, before he left for Berkeley. The boys held the annual Mother and Son Banquet on May 17, 1929.

Varsity "W" Club

THE VARSITY CLUB was formed in 1928 for the purpose of promoting high standards of play and sportsmanship and of encouraging high scholarship among athletes. In the year and a half since its organization the club has steadily increased in effectiveness.

Membership to the club is restricted to men earning a varsity letter or men being voted into the club as honorary members. In accepting membership into the organization, an athlete pledges himself to strive for those things enumerated in the introductory paragraph. All members must go through a rigid initiation on entering the club. Four of these initiations were held this year, the third of which was made into a very enjoyable beach party.

This year the Varsity Club has become one of the most outstanding clubs in Whittier High. It is considered a great honor and a mark of high attainment in athletics to belong to this organization. Every boy looks forward to the time when he may be counted as one of the club members.

The Varsity Club last year presented to Whittier High a loving cup which is to remain in the school. On this cup is to be inscribed each year the name of the best all-round athlete. The club reserves the right of deciding who shall be the honored athlete. Last year this great honor fell to Paul Winget. The second name to be inscribed on the cup is Johnny Arrambide, Whittier High's best all-round athlete for 1929.

The Varsity Club, in cooperation with the Business Manager of the Student Body, helped put over a large sale of annuals. The club has also worked with the executive committee in deciding important athletic questions which came up during the year.

The Road Runner Club

THE ROAD RUNNER CLUB, which combines bird study with many good times, ranks in interest with the largest clubs of the school. The purpose of this club is to acquaint its members with birds of Whittier and the neighboring region.

Regular meetings are held on the third Monday afternoon of each month. They have been fortunate in securing such interesting features as talks by Mrs. Saunders and Mrs. Whalen.

In order to be able to recognize birds when they are seen and to become acquainted with them in their natural habitat, the members of the club take field trips on the first Saturday of each month. They have visited streams, canyons, parks, and beaches and have seen many interesting birds. A prize is given to the pupil keeping the best account of these trips.

The faculty adviser for the Road Runner Club is Mrs. Aborn.

The officers were:

Commerce Club

THE COMMERCE CLUB has always been very active, and has always had a large enrollment. All students, except freshmen, who are enrolled in the Commercial Department are eligible to membership in the club and are urged to attend the interesting meetings. Everyone will find it to be a help in his commercial work as well as a provider of social activity.

This year the Commerce Club has been very active and successful under the able leadership of Miss O'Farrell, who is new among the Faculty members and who has suggested many new and good ideas. The Commerce Club has given delightful parties at School, and theatre parties in Los Angeles, including "Wild Orchids" and "The Broadway Melody." With the help of the sewing classes the club also gave a spring fashion show for the Girls' League. Alberta Shelton, the program chairman, has provided many good programs at meetings and parties. The social chairman also has contributed to the good times of the girls. All parties and programs were successes.

We sincerely hope that next year will be as successful as the year 1929 has proved to be, and that all the students taking commercial subjects will make the club a bigger and better one. Come and learn many things, such as etiquette and clothes, that will be valuable to you in the business world.

The officers for the year have been as follows:

Los Castellanos

THIS YEAR the Spanish Club was organized under the supervision of Miss Reichling. The officers for the first semester were Harold Stone, President; Mary Kaufman, Vice President; Regina Weinshank, Secretary-Treasurer; Jean Mogridge, Social Chairman; Marvin Carson, Program Chairman and Aileen Oliver, Reporter.

The purpose of this club is to make the study of Spanish more interesting and to have social functions for the benefit of the members. One very interesting Spanish custom, "La Pinata", the Spanish way of giving Christmas gifts, was carried out in the Christmas party.

The first meeting of the second semester was in the form of a dinner, which was given at Pio Pico's Mansion. At this meeting thirty-six new students were recognized as members. There are now sixty-seven members of the club.

The officers for the second semester are Pedro Alvarado, President; Mary Kaufman, Vice President; Regina Weinshank, Secretary-Treasurer; Aileen Oliver, Social Chairman; Marvin Carson, Program Chairman; and Jean Mogridge, Reporter. Among activities of this semester, on the evening of Saturday, March 23, Los Castellanos are going to attend the Mission Play. This play should be very interesting to Spanish students, as it is a story of the Spanish people in early California.

Los Castellanos meet the second Monday of every month. To become a member of the Spanish Club, all first year students must have completed two full quarters of Spanish and have received recommendable grades. All other students must have passing grades.

The American Literature Society

THE AMERICAN LITERATURE SOCIETY was organized this year by the members of the fourth year American literature class. Its purpose was, in general, to make research regarding modern American authors and to study and enjoy their writings.

The society met every Friday during the regular American literature class period. At each meeting a short talk was given by some member of the club on a contemporary author, and representative passages from his works were read. Some of the writers discussed were Booth Tarkington, Carl Sandburg, Vachel Lindsay, Amy Lowell, and Willa Cather. One of the most charming reports was given by James Roberts of China on modern Chinese poetry.

A president, a secretary, and a critic, elected one week in advance, served at each meeting. This arrangement gave all of the members practice in parliamentary procedure.

The honorary officers are as follows :

President	Neil Norris
Vice President.....	Pauline Hudson
Secretary-Treasurer.....	Harriett Aiken
Critic.....	Ruth Lou Anderson

The Advanced Composition Society of 1929

THE ADVANCED COMPOSITION SOCIETY, now completing its third year, is a full-year credit class of seniors organized as a club for practice in speaking and writing and for study of parliamentary procedure.

The club members of this year have emphasized those forms of oral composition commonly used by social and civic clubs and other organizations, some of these being introduction, presentation, farewell, and after-dinner speeches. In their study of parliamentary law and in other activities they have aimed to gain ease, dignity, and efficiency in the transaction of club business, to increase their ability to participate in community life, and to enhance their possibilities of vocational and social success.

As a result of the major composition project of the third quarter, six members entered the oratorical contest of this year. Merton Wray won third place in the local contest of March 22 and third place in the Times contest of District 41 on April 12.

One of the most pleasant occasions of the year was a farewell meeting in honor of Chauncey Simmons, a very active member of the society, on his leaving California for Nebraska. The meeting afforded a series of delightful after-dinner speeches in the spirit of the occasion.

Upon graduation the following students will act as honorary officers of the society:

President.....	Albert Haendiges
Vice President.....	Harriet Rowe
Secretary-Treasurer.....	Wayne Long
Parliamentarian.....	Merton Wray

The Camera Club

THE CAMERA CLUB is an organization of girls in the chemistry department who are interested in amateur photography. It is sponsored by Mr. Cleveland. Membership is open to any girl who is taking, or who has taken, chemistry. Twenty-five girls registered for the work during the past year.

The club aims to accomplish three ends: first, to teach its members about photography,—making the exposure, developing, printing, enlarging, and tinting—and to do this in an entertaining and informal manner; second, to provide the C. & W. and other departments of the school with pictures when asked to do so; and third, to create a spirit of friendliness and enthusiasm toward the school through the club work.

In the management of the club, the students have almost complete control; they elect their own officers and plan their own programs. After the organization of the Club in September, the faculty adviser devotes his time to making such helpful suggestions as may seem advisable, and to the actual work of instruction in the various phases of photography. No membership fee is required. The members buy their own film and paper, and the amount of their expenditures is limited by their own enthusiasm and desires. The school furnishes all chemicals and dark-room equipment, such as trays, enlarging camera, and printers. Regular meetings are held each Wednesday evening after school, but the Club plans to hold occasional special meetings of a purely social nature and to enjoy one or more trips afield for practical work.

The officers for the past year have been: President, Edythe Overman; Vice President, Eliza Gaskill; Secretary-Treasurer, Dorothea Burt, Social Chairman, Elizabeth Perry.

Stage Crew

SINCE THE first days of Whittier Union High School there has always been a stage crew, but it has been but a few years since credit has been given for their work. Mrs. Grassell has supervised this work for several years, and consequently a fast and efficient stage crew has been organized and developed. Students wishing to enter this organization must have passing grades in all subjects, two of which must be recommended work.

The Stage Crew is one of the necessary organizations of this school. Its services are indispensable. Just as the actors that play before audiences practice, so must the members of the stage crew practice, each change must be mastered because the success of the play or program depends upon every detail. Hours of hard labor are spent in preparation for each play or benefit that is to be presented. Through the untiring efforts of this year's crew, scenes have been painted and the stage equipment has been improved. Extensive repairs, and improvements in the electrical equipment have been accomplished by the electricians, Lewis Andrus and his assistant. To fill the positions in the delicate and particular end of the work of the stage crew, the organization feels that it has the best available students. Burton Hufford, as manager, has successfully produced a stage crew that should be complimented for its efforts and achievements.

The Art Club

THE ART CLUB, the oldest club in our High School, has completed a year which, as always, has been very enjoyable and interesting as well as instructive to all the members. Miss Marks, the organizer and adviser has been the leading spirit in the club throughout the year. The purpose of the Art Club is to help those students who are particularly interested in art to a finer understanding of different forms of art. Only second year students are eligible for membership.

This year the club has studied the lives and work of great painters. The members have taken two trips, one to Barker Bros in Los Angeles, and one to the Huntington Library at San Marino.

Meetings are held on the second and fourth Mondays of the school month. Every other meeting is social, and the members are entertained by hosts and hostesses chosen from the club.

The officers for the year were:

Marjorie Johnson.....	President	Marjorie Johnson
Donald Fantz.....	Vice President	Donald Fantz
Richard Harris.....	Secretary-Treasurer	Barbara Cogburn

Entomology Club

THE ENTOMOLOGY CLUB was organized this year for the purpose of promoting the study of insects, and also of creating an interest in all plants and animals studied in Biology.

The work of the first semester was done mostly in the field, collecting and classifying insects for school collections. Several interesting trips were taken, and many specimens of unusual interest were found. Perhaps the most interesting and instructive trip was that to the Museum of Natural History at Exposition Park, Los Angeles. Here through the courtesy of Professor Muchmore, Coleopterist of the Museum, club members were shown the wonderful collection of insects on exhibit, and also many other things of interest to a naturalist. They enjoyed the rare pleasure of visiting the office and workroom of Professor Muchmore, where he showed his own private collection and explained details of insect collecting, mounting, and classifying.

The adviser of the Entomology Club is Mr. F. E. Jordan.

The officers of the year were:

First Semester		Second Semester

Cooking Club

THE COOKING CLUB was organized in 1926 under the supervision of Miss Della King, the cooking teacher. The purpose of the club was to provide the school flat with accessories which it needed. In 1926 the girls added a beautiful silver tea set which has been used on many occasions by the club at their formal teas.

Each year the Cooking Club has become more in demand in school affairs. This year it has assisted the Girls' League in social service work, made cookies for the Girls' League Valentine party, and served luncheons and dinners for numerous school functions. At Christmas time members of the club made cookies for the League cheer work and aided the social service committee in preparing baskets of food for the needy.

One of the biggest projects of the year was undertaken by the girls at the Christmas season when the club made and sold fruit cakes to earn money for the purchasing of waffle irons to be used in the classes by the members. Two beautiful waffle irons were added to the many accessories purchased by the members of previous years.

Officers of the club for each semester are as follows:

Phyllis Pettit.....	President	Phyllis Pettit
Estelyn Davis.....	Vice President	June Towne
Gertrude Wilding.....	Secretary-Treasurer	Regina Weinshank
Eleanor Mitchell.....	Social Chairman.....	Gertrude Wilding

Le Cercle Francais

MEMBERS of our French classes interested in furthering their knowledge of French customs and in increasing their familiarity with practical usage of French, have for four years enjoyed membership in a society, Le Cercle Francais, under the leadership of Miss Ethel George. Those taking first year French gather knowledge from their association in the club with students who have advanced further in this study; those who are in the second year class find that active participation in these meetings, speaking in French whenever possible, greatly benefits their study and increases their interest.

The meetings, which are in a large measure conducted in French, are held on the third Monday in each month. At alternate meetings the members play French games and enjoy light refreshments. The other meetings are made interesting as well as instructive with programs, often illustrated with pictures and articles which Miss George brought back from her recent trip to France.

Le Cercle Francais has always had a fine social atmosphere due to the fact that all its members study French under the same teacher and therefore have one common interest in the club. The most outstanding social event of the year was a clever French banquet given in November at the home of one of the members. The dinner, including various interesting French dishes, was most enjoyable.

NOTHING in the history of the world is more romantic than the story of early California. It is altogether fitting that this pioneer life with its vices and its virtues should be preserved in literature. The man to do this was a young printer of San Francisco. Bret Harte, whose stories every American boy and girl loves, depicts this wild, unruly life in a most admirable fashion.

His stories of pioneer days have thrilled the hearts of thousands of people and are of particular interest to us because they are of our own dear state, California.

Drama

A HISTORY of the stage is no trivial thing to those who wish to study human nature in all shapes and positions. It is of all things the most instructive, to see not only the reflection of manners and characters at several periods, but the modes of making their reflection, and the manner of adapting it at those periods to the taste and disposition of mankind. The stage indeed may be considered as the republic of active literature, and its history as the history of that state. The great events of political history, when not combined with the same helps towards the study of the manners and characters of men, must be a study of an inferior nature.—Edmund Burke.

When literature contains the elements of impersonation and mimetic action, we say that it is dramatic, thus, the ballad "Edward," with its moving dialogue between mother and son, is dramatic narrative. Literature in which the characters are represented as actually speaking and acting as they might do in real life, literature which contains, that is, impersonation, dialogue, and dramatic action—not narrative—is called drama. The word comes from a Greek word meaning "to do or act."

Drama differs from other narrative forms in the fact that its imitation of life is direct and immediate; on a little mock world which we call the stage it mimics life by an actual presentation of human moods and passions. Essentially, drama is written to be presented, or acted; when it is read from a book, the reader visualizes the action, reconstructing in his mind the words and movements of the characters. Probably no other type of literature presents more variations of form and content, for the stage reflects the times more directly than does any book.

CLUB '29

The Dramatics Club

THIS YEAR under the direction of Miss Frankenfield and Mrs. Grassell, the dramatics department has formed a dramatics club. The purpose of the club is to give each student more practical knowledge in dramatics and to further the interest in drama itself.

The club meets every other Tuesday night for approximately an hour. Each program consists of a one-act play and two or three other numbers. Each class in its turn has given a program and has elected from its number a program chairman, a master of properties, and stage manager. There have been eleven programs presented this year, and every one has been a success.

The club has charged no dues. Each student of the high school may become a member if he secures a membership card, which must be presented at the door at each meeting.

The greatest thing this year for the Dramatics Club has been the presentation of Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night." The complete play was given with a half hour intermission in the middle of the play. During the intermission the Girls' League served light refreshments in the colonnades of the Auditorium. The Dramatics Club charged twenty-five cents admission to the play, and members carried out the box office work and the serving of refreshments. The play was a great success and showed a great amount of study.

The club wishes to take this opportunity to express its sincere thanks to Miss Frankenfield and to Mrs. Grassell, who have helped make it a great success.

Senior Play

"WHAT ANN BROUGHT HOME"

"WHAT ANN BROUGHT HOME" was the successful five-act comedy chosen for this year's Senior play. What Ann brought home surely startled the whole family. It was a husband! He not only startled the family but caused much trouble because of his apparent inability as a business man, and because of his seemingly foolish idea about starting a "fish farm". However, when he was finally given the opportunity to carry out his idea, he proved that what Ann brought home was really a husband, successful not only in business, but also in the management of family affairs.

"THE MENNONITE MAID"

THE FIRST play of the year, "The Mennonite Maid," a comedy picturing the life of the Pennsylvania Dutch, was presented by the Girls' League; the proceeds were used for the Girls' League Christmas-Cheer Work.

The scene of this play was laid in a Mennonite home of Schneidersville. Walter Fairchilds, who had come to take the position of village school teacher, became so much interested in Tillie, a Mennonite Maid, that, because of her eagerness to learn, he undertook to tutor her nightly. Tillie gradually came to realize the oddities and limitations of her religious sect, and desired to turn from the Mennonite faith to modern ideas. However, twenty thousand dollars willed to Tillie stood in her way. This sum was to be given to her on her eighteenth birthday if she had remained a true Mennonite maid. Nevertheless, because she remained true to her changed ideals, the church disowned her, caused Walter Fairchilds to leave town, and encouraged her marriage to Absolom Puntz. However, Walter learned that he was the only heir to the legacy just in time to return to Tillie on her unhappy wedding day. He gave the money to Tillie, and they eloped in the buggy of Doc who helped to bring it all about.

Music

Effect of Music

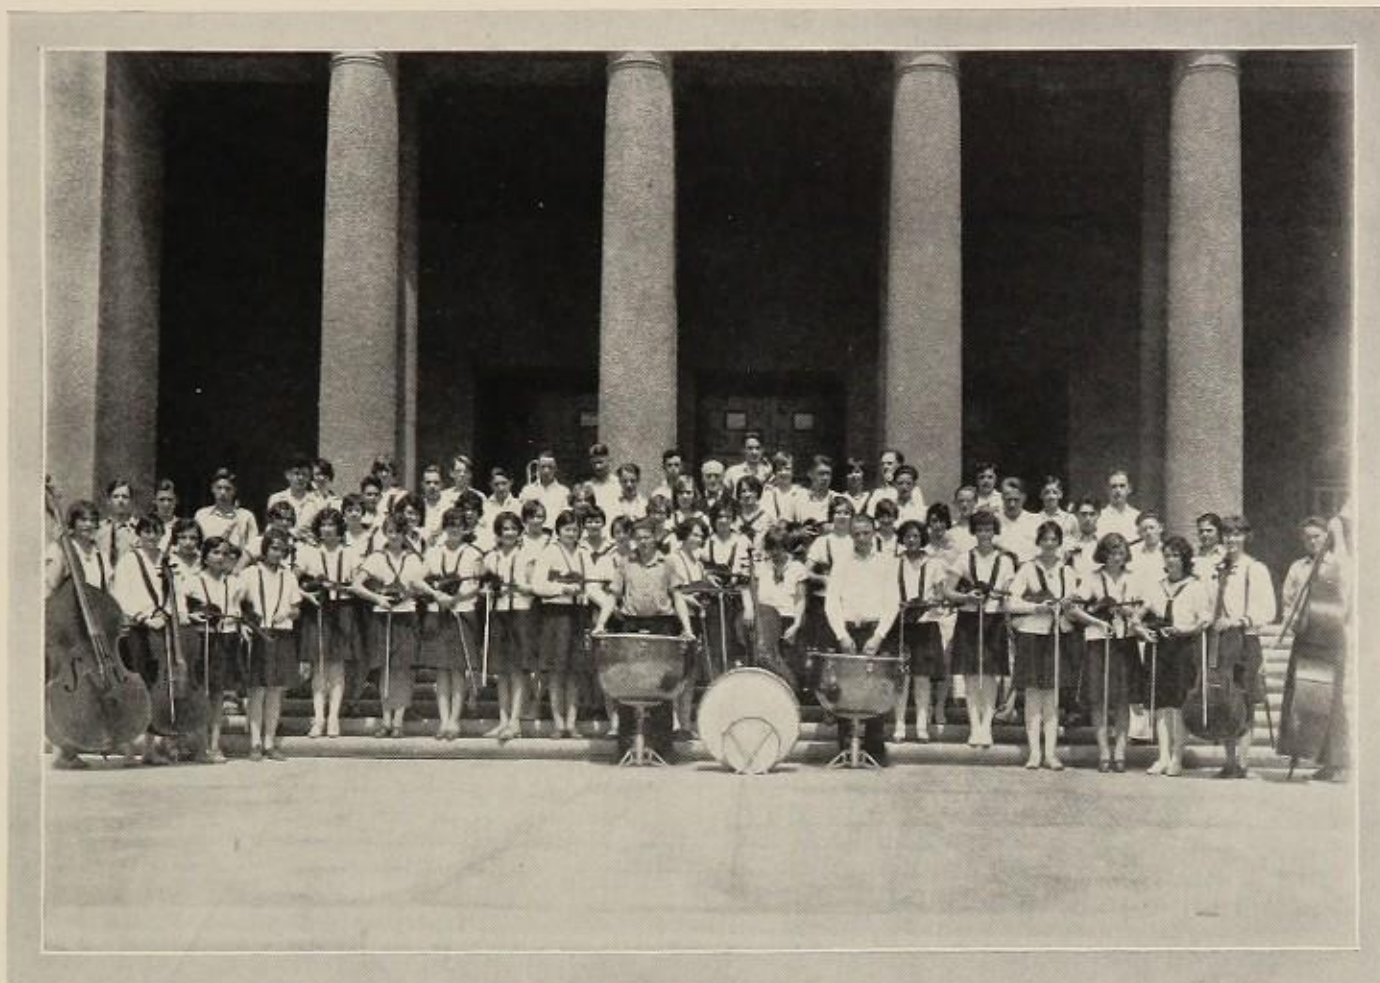

*"Music hath charms to sooth the savage breast
To soften rocks, or bend a knotted oak."*

—The Mourning Bride.

ON EVERY page of history there runs some music; a gay ballad, a solemn hymn, or some blood-tingling march. Around the camp fire at night many groups have been heartened by the singing of merry songs. One is often inspired and elevated by sacred music. It has played a great part in religion. Soldiers marching to war have been invigorated to a strong purpose by the beat of the drum and the challenging notes of the cornet.

The subtle effect of music is varied. That classical portrayal in harmony of an old, legendary war or a fierce, thunderous storm will cause one to shake and shiver in one's seat at the clash and clang of the cymbal. One is excited, aroused. Again, like a soothing, stroking hand will come a crooning melody that is peaceful and quiet. Then, too, a gay, rollicking strata may cheer one who is deeply depressed. Music ever compels one to adapt one's self to its mood. We often discover that music is just what we need to inspire, or soothe, or cheer us. Just as the life of one who lives in a certain locality for a long time is colored by the natural surroundings, so is the life of one who hears music affected by the surrounding musical atmosphere.

We, of Whittier Union High School feel that we have come into closer association with higher things and that we have a keener appreciation of good music through the efforts of our department of instrumental music. Under the supervision of Mr. W. H. MacDonald and his assistant, Miss Geraldine MacDonald, this department has furthered the spirit of service and cooperation and has given us something beneficial and effectual in the opportunity to hear good music.

Orchestra

UNDER THE excellent direction of Professor W. H. Macdonald, assisted by Miss Geraldine Macdonald, the Whittier Union High School Orchestra has come to the close of a happy and successful year. It has with equal interest presented great symphonies, standard overtures, operatic selections, fantasies, and marches, as well as numerous smaller compositions. Numbers illustrating these types are Haydn's "Farewell Symphony," "Around the Christmas Tree," by Orpheus, "The Desert Song," "Prince of Pilsen," and Sousa's "Stars and Stripes."

With the exception of oboe, bassoon, and viola, the orchestra has the required instruments for a symphony orchestra. Its membership of sixty and the types of music presented are evidence of culture and talent both in the school and the community.

The orchestra has made many appearances this year, for it has performed at graduation and baccalaureate exercises, operettas, class plays, and meetings of various clubs and associations of Whittier.

In its own meetings the club has encouraged the progress of the individual, for it has enjoyed several programs in which members of the organization have taken part. Programs of the Orchestra Club have included violin solos, violin duets, saxophone numbers, clarinet solos, trios, and sextets of various combinations. The Club has enjoyed in a social way a trip to the Philharmonic Auditorium, a mountain party, and a Halloween party.

Through playing music of the type that is presented in its own meetings and at public appearances, the members of the orchestra are gaining an appreciation of good music.

Band

THE WHITTIER UNION HIGH SCHOOL BAND under the most able directorship of Mr. Macdonald, assisted by Miss Macdonald, has had a year to be proud of. The loss of the previous year's Senior members was at first keenly felt, but rapid advancement of the less experienced players soon brought the organization to the place where real accomplishments could be obtained.

Forty members have composed the personnel of this well-balanced instrumental group.

The Band played at most of the home football and basketball games, and so added pep to these occasions. It also played at the dedication of the Perry Gymnasium, Faculty Minstrel Show, P-T. A. Fathers' Night, G. A. A. Play Day, and in fact was ready at a moment's notice to take part in any activity.

Girls' Sextette

THE JUNIOR GIRLS' SEXTETTE is one of the most active musical organizations of the school. The sextette, started when the girls were Freshmen, is now a finished product of many hours of strenuous practice on the part of the members. The Girls have ever been willing to play on short notice. This willingness has greatly increased their popularity among the students.

The class of work done by this sextette has been far better than the average. The excellent technique and harmony of their selections are a certain proof of their ability in maintaining high standards in classical music, and their performances have been much appreciated. Besides playing for school affairs and programs, the Sextette has played for the P.T. A., De Molay, P. E. O., and the Palmer Metaphonian Tea at the college.

The members of the Sextette are Dorothea Irwin and Eddith Spencer, violins; Wilma Jenkins, cello; Margaret Binford, flute; Beatrice Stanley, clarinet; and Margaret Mitchell, piano.

Girls' Glee Club

ONCE AGAIN the Girls' Glee Club under the capable direction of Mr. Petty has completed a profitable year of constant activity. This year the girls have succeeded in getting new uniforms of white crepe dresses with red ties, to carry out the school colors.

Besides presenting an occasional program at local churches and taking part in the operetta, "The Bells of Capistrano," by Charles Wakefield Cadman, on which they concentrated especially during the third quarter, the girls have always been ready and willing to cooperate and do their share in any school program, such as a rally or a student body meeting.

The Glee Club is made up of forty-eight selected voices. Although graduation is taking a large percentage of the group, there are some excellent singers left for next year.

The officers for the year were as follows:

President	Irma Richardson
Vice President.....	Phyllis Emery
Secretary-Treasurer	Dora Clements
Business Manager	Virginia King

Boys' Glee Club

THE BOYS' GLEE CLUB cannot boast of many public appearances this year, but there has been plenty of "harmony in the air" during every rehearsal. The loss of several experienced tenors of last year's club has seriously hindered progress this year. However, under the patient and experienced coaching of Mr. Petty, a great deal of thorough foundation work in voice development and sight reading has been accomplished, the results of which will surely be realized when more tenors are enrolled to make balanced part singing possible.

The Boys' Glee Club deserves much credit for valuable assistance in the operetta, "The Bells of Capistrano." "The Baggage Smashers" and "Cowboys" were the "hits" and "big noise" of that clever production. The following club members are deserving of special mention for their part in the operetta: James Dyer, Donald Fantz, Ed Rogers, Joe St. George, Paul Batson, Dwight Hocking, and Ed Kitchen. The solo work of James Dyer has been excellent and popular with the student body.

Every member of this year's club has also been enrolled in the Chorus classes, where additional experience has been gained in singing four part mixed chorus arrangements. The Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs, together with the combined Chorus classes, are preparing for the presentation of some of the finest oratorio choruses during Commencement season. One of these will be "The Heavens Are Telling," from "The Creation" by Franz Joseph Haydn.

The Bells of Capistrano

THE BELLS OF CAPISTRANO by Charles Wakefield Cadman, a clever opera of three acts, was presented on April 18 by the combined glee clubs under the direction of Mr. Ralph Petty.

The story of the plot centers around the Ortego Rancho near Capistrano Mission in 1860. This ranch belongs to Ramon Ortego, the last male descendant of the Spanish family. Ramon has only one herd of cattle to pay off the heavy mortgage held by Jake Kraft, which falls due in a short time. Pose, an Indian medicine man, calls upon his gods to restore the tribe's lost lands, and tells of a curse upon the Capistrano Mission, which will not be lifted until the mission bells ring again. Kraft persuades Pose to "rustle" the last herd of Ortego cattle. Noneeta, a member of the Ortego household, overhears them, and persuades her lover, Lone Eagle, to save the rancho.

Meanwhile, Professor Anderson, his sister, Laura, and three students come to the Ortego Rancho. The students fall in love with Ramon's three beautiful sisters. Marian Alden arrives with her father, to restore the rapidly falling old mission. Here begins a love affair between Ramon and Marian. While in the midst of despair, Ramon gains courage from his foreman, Bill Burns, who has violently fallen in love with Laura.

After much work and despair, the bells of Capistrano ring again, thus breaking the curse. Lone Eagle brings back the cattle, and the Indians are reconciled. Marian discovers a secret map of a mine of great riches. They all live happily ever after.

Much credit for the presentation is due to Mr. Petty, musical director, to Miss Frankenfield and Mrs. Grassell, dramatic coaches; to Mrs. Tomlinson, teacher of dancing; and to Mr. MacDonald, orchestra director.

Constitution Orators

AS A RESULT of the success of last year's contest, there was more interest than ever in oratory this year. Seventeen students entered the elimination contest: Marvin Carson, Louise Cook, William Fletcher, Albert Haendiges, Roland Harker, Eldon Hunt, Virginia King, Wayne Long, Mary Lee Mitchell, Richard Nixon, Gladys Olson, Forest Randall, Harriet Rowe, Melvin Wilcox, Robert Williams, Louise Woods, and Merton Wray—eight being chosen to speak in the local preliminary contest on the evening of March 22:

Louise Cook—"The Constitution and the Liberty of the Individual."

William Fletcher—"The Origin of the Constitution."

Roland Harker—"Christianity and the Constitution."

Eldon Hunt—"John Marshall and the Constitution."

Richard Nixon—"Our Privileges Under the Constitution."

Gladys Olson—"The Constitution: A Guarantee of Liberty to the Individual."

Melvin Wilcox—"The Citizen—His Rights and Duties Under the Constitution."

Merton Wray—"The Constitution and Universal Liberty."

For this contest the Kiwanis Club offered prizes of ten, five, and two and a half dollars. The winners of the contest were as follows: Richard Nixon, first; Eldon Hunt, second; Merton Wray, third; and Gladys Olson, fourth.

These four then represented the school in the District Contest with South Pasadena. This event took place at Whittier. Richard again held first place and Merton Wray won third.

The crowning event of this year's oratorical contest was the fact that Whittier had the honor of being host for the Group F Times Semifinal on the evening of April 26th.

Our Privileges Under the Constitution

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

For countless centuries man has aspired to freedom. The pages of history are replete with the stories of men and women who have given their lives that they and their posterity might have the blessings of freedom. When we consider the development of our own liberties, we recall the stirring deeds of our English ancestors; how they secured from the unwilling hands of their despotic kings those priceless guaranties of freedom—the Magna Charta and the Bill of Rights. We remember with pride how our American forefathers, being refused the rights granted by their charters, and oppressed by a despotic king, defied one of the mightiest nations in existence, and proved victorious in the struggle that followed. Then we think of the steps those men made to establish their new-born liberties in a lasting government: how they at first failed to obtain the desired results by the Articles of Confederation, but how, undaunted, they finally produced a document which has withstood the trials of nearly a century and a half—our Constitution.

Today we are receiving the benefits of that freedom for which so many of our forefathers paid the supreme sacrifice. Let us consider those benefits—our privileges under the Constitution.

The chief desire of man is that his life and personal liberty may be well protected. While our forefathers were struggling for freedom, one of their grievances was that a man, accused of a crime, was not always given a fair chance to prove himself innocent, and was thus often unjustly punished. Therefore the framers of the Constitution provided for the highest type of justice. No citizen of the United States can be tried for a capital crime without first being indicted by a grand jury. If he is indicted, he is given a public trial by an impartial jury. He may obtain counsel and witnesses. He is not compelled to testify against himself as in times past, nor is any evidence obtained by compulsion. A great number of innocent persons would have been saved from ignominious death if such rights could have been had in times past. These privileges for trial mean much to us, for they protect us from unjust accusations and punishments. Let us safeguard them by protecting the Constitution which insures them.

Many of our forefathers came to America because they had been refused the privilege of free worship. They left behind them nations burdened with horrors of religious wars caused by the intolerance of men in power toward others with different religious views. The framers of the Constitution wisely provided against such wars in this nation by inserting a clause insuring free worship. We are truly fortunate to have this privilege; but let us not think that, since the Constitution provides for free worship, persons may indulge in religious practices which are debasing to mind and character. Such practices are in direct contrast to the spirit of the Constitution. Rather, in remembrance of those who have given us this privilege, let us protect it and hold it sacred.

During the struggle for freedom, our forefathers were in constant danger of punishment for exercising the rights of freedom of speech and freedom of the press. Again the cause of their danger was the intolerance of men in power toward others with different views. The framers of the Constitution provided that we, their descendants, need not fear to express our sentiments as they did. Yet the question arises: How much ground do these privileges cover? There are some who use them as a cloak for covering libelous, indecent, and injurious statements against their fellowmen. Should the morals of this nation be offended and polluted in the name of freedom of speech or freedom of the press? In the words of Lincoln, the individual can have no rights against the best interests of society. Furthermore there are those who, under the pretense of freedom of speech and freedom of the press, have incited riots, assailed our patriotism, and denounced the Constitution itself. They have used Constitutional privileges to protect the very act by which they wished to destroy the Constitution. Consequently laws have justly been provided for punishing those who abuse their Constitutional privileges—laws which do not limit these privileges, but which provide that they may not be instrumental in destroying the Constitution which insures them. We must obey these laws, for they have been passed for our own welfare.

Now, since we have considered those paramount privileges of freedom of trial, of religion, of speech, and of the press—all personal liberties, let us consider our political liberties under the Constitution.

If we should delve into the histories of great nations, we should see that in the past the common people had been forced to serve and support the nobility; that they had been given no chance to gain power; and that they had had scarcely any part in the government. Contrast such governments with our own.

In the United States, the people themselves are the rulers. Gone are the days of inequality and servitude. We derive our powers from the privilege of suffrage. Let us see how it has been established in the Constitution. When this document was first adopted, the privilege of suffrage was held by all free male citizens. Three quarters of a century later the curse of slavery was removed forever from this nation, and the ballot was extended to all men regardless of race or color. In our own time this privilege has been fully established by the Constitution, and has been extended to all citizens regardless of sex. But do we fully appreciate this privilege? Does it seem right that, in the presidential elections of 1920 and 1924, little over fifty per cent of the eligible voting public went to the polls, and that in our last election little over sixty-five per cent cast their ballots? Can those millions of American people who each year fail to go to the polls be called true American citizens? We must become educated to a higher appreciation of the privilege of suffrage, for the destiny of this nation is guided by the American people alone. To use the ballot is the citizen's duty to himself, to his fellowmen, and to his country. It is his debt to those innumerable patriots whose sacrifices have made possible his present day privileges.

In times past the right to hold office was given only to those of the nobility, we however, have our Lincolns and our Jacksons—men who needed only a chance to prove their worth, that they might rise to the highest office in the land. Truly it is a great privilege to hold office, but it is also a great responsibility. The office holder is elected by his fellowmen, who expect him to represent them wisely and justly. It is his duty to give his services willingly, no matter how insignificant the position; to perform his work to the best of his ability; and to defend, maintain, and uphold the Constitution.

By these two political privileges, of suffrage and of holding office, the American citizen is a ruler more powerful than any king. Let us not be unworthy of our great power.

Fellow citizens, when we consider all our privileges, we see that we are a most fortunate people to be living under the rule of a Constitution which has been built upon the very rock of freedom. Our forefathers have given their lives that this Constitution might live, that we, their descendants might enjoy its privileges. It is our duty to protect this precious document, to obey its laws, to hold sacred its mighty principles, that our descendants may have those priceless heritages—Our Privileges under the Constitution.

The Girls' League Orchestra

UNDER THE capable leadership of Miss Geraldine McDonald, several girls who were musically inclined organized the Girls' League Orchestra. Their chief motive is to provide music for Girls' League programs. At five entertainments during the year they have been able to add to the Girls' programs by their excellent presentations. One of the special events of the year was the presentation of Hayden's "Toy Symphony" in which several women faculty members assisted. The following are the officers:

President.....	Margaret Mitchell
Secretary.....	Eleanor Tebbetts

ON FRIDAY night of October 5, one of the most important events of the school year was held. The members of the Sophomore Class entertained the Freshman Class with a reception.

The program of the evening was as follows:

Address of Welcome—Clyde Tubbs, President of the Sophomore Class.

Response—James Biswell, President of Freshman Class.

Reading—Vitoreo Arcadi.

As a feature of the entertainment the picture "Ella Cinders" was shown. A short prologue was given previous to the picture.

The committee having the affair in charge were Marjorie Warner, program chairman; Allan Wheatland, chairman of refreshments; and Hope Lewis, ticket chairman.

At the close of the program in the Auditorium the members of the two classes went to the Girls' Gymnasium where light refreshments were served.

GIRLS' LEAGUE HALLOWEEN PARTY

ANOTHER important event of much interest in social activities was the elaborate Halloween costume party for the members of the Girls' League.

As all those attending were dressed in costumes, the great attraction of the evening was the awarding of prizes to the winners of the costume parade. Ruby Smith and Charlotte Kent received prizes for the originality of their costumes. Helen Howe, dressed as Orphan Annie, was awarded a prize for being most cleverly dressed.

The program for the evening, in charge of Doris Field, was as follows:

Reading—Doris Field

Characterization—Ruby Smith and Charlotte Kent

Musical numbers—"In Lilac Time" and "Was It a Dream" played by Girls' Symphonette.

Acrobatic Stunts—Ruby Smith and Charlotte Kent.

GIRLS' LEAGUE BIRTHDAY BANQUET

ON MAY 2 the Girls' League annual birthday banquet was held in the basement of the Christian Church. Instead of the arrangement of the tables and programs according to birthdays a new system was tried and proved very successful. This year each school club had in charge a table and the preparation of a skit.

The theme of the program was based on popular songs. Each club chose a popular song and made from it their individual skit or program. This method was very successful and entertaining.

The clubs participating were G. A. A., Cooking Club, Spanish Club, French Club, Camera Club, Roadrunners, Latin Club, Glee Club, Commerce Club, Dramatics Club, and the Advanced Clogging Club.

After the program the girls sang the Alma Mater, led by Doris Field.

"BIG SISTER"—"LITTLE SISTER" TEA

ONE OF THE most interesting functions of the year was held on Thursday afternoon, November 24. All of the Freshmen girls, accompanied by their Senior "Big Sisters" were invited to attend a program in the Auditorium, after which refreshments of tea and wafers were served.

The program scheduled for the afternoon was as follows:

Welcome—Pauline Petty

Chinese Toe Dance—Mabel Jones

Songs—Doris Field and Dorothy Faull

Reading—Leona Mifflin

Musical Numbers—Girls' League Orchestra

"Heavens or Quarantined"

Cast: Dorothy Cummings, Catherine Oldham, Phyllis Pettit, Meryle Cornelius, Marie Phelan.

Director of play—Hariett Aiken

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

NOT ONLY the last event but also the loveliest and liveliest affair of the school year was the annual Junior-Senior Banquet given on May 23. The members of the Junior Class gave the affair in the nature of a farewell courtesy to the graduating class.

The new Perry Gymnasium was chosen as the setting for the annual event. The motif carried out in the decorations and atmosphere was typically Spanish. The toasts were based on parts of old Spanish proverbs.

The following program was presented during the evening:

President of Junior Class	Malcolm Tuft
"Lo que el corazon"
Representative of Board	Mr. H. Jordan
"Si el trabajador es bueno"
President of Student Body	Paul Batson

THE FAMOUS San Franciscan organization known as the Vigilance Committee was organized in June, 1851. Its membership was made up of the most prominent men in the city and other men who could prove their honesty and integrity, a group pledged to restore law and order in their community. Because of their whole-hearted efforts San Francisco became a respectable city instead of a paradise for crime. The Vigilantes live in the stirring stories of early California.

The Coaching Staff

ON THE COACHING staff of Whittier Hi during 1928-1929 were six of the finest instructors obtainable in the realm of sport. Through the efforts of these coaches Whittier Hi was able to win a hearty share of Coast League honors.

Albert "Mick" Madden resumed his duties as varsity grid coach this year. Out of an assortment of young and inexperienced material he developed a team that could be downed only by Herculean effort. Mick's team, often beaten by only a few points, would battle on inspired with a courage and fight that only a good sport like Mick could give them.

Don Douglas acted as head basketball and baseball coach besides coaching the unbeaten football team. All of Don's teams are outfits to be reckoned with. He did very well in basketball considering that he divided his attention between the 130's and the varsity teams. Don makes fighting teams out of his candidates, teams that play hard and well for Don and for the Cardinal and White.

Don Cole applied his skill and training to almost every branch of athletics. He was the able assistant to Mick Madden in coaching varsity football. He also assisted Don Douglas with his two basketball outfits. Besides this, Don took charge of the track and tennis teams. The increasing interest taken in track and tennis the last two years at Whittier Hi has been due to Don's desire to widen the scope of athletics at Whittier Hi.

Al Whitcomb finished a fifth prosperous year as all-round coach. Al coached the 130 football team and the championship 110 basketball outfit, the only team from Whittier to win a league championship. Al, no doubt, had a great deal to do with bringing home this victory. Also he took charge of the swimming team, organized this year for the first time. He has the knack of getting the greatest amount of service and cooperation from his teams. His players feel that they must fight for Al and give their best in the effort to win for him.

Walt Wegner, along with his regular teaching, coached the wrestling squad. Wrestling is the sport that Whittier Hi is the most proficient in and the one in which we have won the most honors of late. Wegner always develops a bunch of really skilled and clever grapplers. We hope that he will continue to develop championship wrestlers in the future just as he has done this year and in the past.

Bob Strahl has been added the past year to the coaching staff as trainer. He certainly knows his stuff and has had a great deal to do with keeping the boys in good condition.

Managing Staff

A STUDENT manager is required for each sport. These managers all work under Kenneth Craig, the student body manager. Kenney also is manager for the Cardinal and White weekly and for the annual. The athletic managers help the coaches by taking care of the equipment, by arranging for the transportation to and from games, and by preparing for a game or meet. All the work is not easy; for example, lining off the football field and track or finding baseballs.

The football managers for the varsity are: June Albright and Sox Parsons; for the 130's, Frank Graves and for the 110's, Bernard Cater. Kenneth Turner acted as manager for all three basketball teams. Managers for the other sports were baseball, George Buehler; track, Lyle Otterman; tennis, Charles Saunders; and wrestling, Bob Duncan.

Varsity Football

AT THE annual call for grid material in the fall, a number of ambitious and hopeful candidates put on their football togs for a little tutoring from Coach "Mick" Madden. For a while our prospects looked bright, but when the cruel hand of ineligibility was lifted, only a few remained. Our coach struggled on with hardly enough material to put up strong opposition to the first string. Nevertheless our boys fought with a true Cardinal spirit, and at some time in every game they showed that they were a real football team. To top their misfortunes, the "flu" epidemic hit them hard and every man on the squad suffered an attack at some time during the season. Their support waned as the year progressed, but Whittier High can well be proud of the spirit shown by their players under the most disheartening conditions.

Whittier vs. Pasadena.—In one of the most thrilling punting exhibitions ever seen on our gridiron, Whittier was beaten by Pasadena by the close score of 6-0.

Whittier vs. Santa Ana.—The game with Santa Ana, which was hard-fought from start to finish, showed Whittier to be the better team although Santa Ana came out with the long end of the 13-7 score.

Whittier vs. Alhambra.—Not daunted by two defeats, the boys went into the mixup with Alhambra with great confidence of winning. Alhambra took the championship this year and defeated every other team by twenty points or more. The Whittier boys held Alhambra to one touch-down the first half, but in the end were not able to stand the spirit of fresh reserves. Alhambra walked off the gridiron with a 28-0 victory.

Whittier vs. San Diego.—The Poets outplayed the Cavemen in every department of football. Whittier certainly would have won the contest had they had the added strength of three regular players who were out because of sickness. A place kick decided the game in favor of San Diego 13-12.

Whittier vs. South Pasadena.—With both teams out for raw meat, the hardest game of the season was fought, with the Tigers. The game was a hair raising affair from start to finish, ending in a 12-12 tie.

Whittier vs. Glendale.—Our whole team battered to pieces, the Dynamiters came over and started running all over the field. The final score was 32-0.

Whittier vs. Long Beach.—Fighting for Mick and Whittier High, the team went to war with Long Beach. Although the teams were evenly matched, the Jackrabbits won by a 7-0 score.

Captain Wayne Adams, although ill a large part of the season, managed to play well at quarterback in all of the games.

"Varsity Football Men"

Melvin Wilcox played running guard in all the games except one when he replaced "Wally" Rusk at end. Whittier is losing in "Mel" this year a good all-round athlete.

Wally Rusk played defensive end and offensive tackle. Wally, with his exceptional kicking on the "kick-off" and steady offensive and defensive game, made the All-Conference team at tackle. Wally is leaving us, although he has been here but three years.

Emmett "Mutt" Ingram, as he was last year, has been a fine center. He has been good on offensive and defensive. Emmett will be missed next year, because his place will be hard to fill.

Leonard "Chubby" Stanfield played good games at both running guard and half-back. This is "Chubby's" second year on the Varsity. Though he is small, he is powerful. Like a small stick of dynamite, he is to be handled with care.

Julius Louis "Caesar" will be missed in the backfield next year, as it will be hard to pick up a fast interference runner to fill his shoes.

Neil Norris, at the end of the line we found old "Nick" always ready to do his part both on the defense and on the offense. Neil was also an A-1 pass receiver.

Paul Batson, veteran varsity man, played an excellent game at tackle. He was one of the most consistent players on the team and the squad of next year will greatly miss his fine support.

Walker Hannon, a newcomer, played his only season for Whittier this year at end. "Tex" played a good, easy game, and handled himself well. We are sorry that he had only one year to play for Whittier High.

Class B Football

THE FOOTBALL lightweights met with some difficulty this year since several of their men were laid up during a part of the season.

Under the coaching of Al Whitcomb and the captainship of Emerick, the boys came through very well, considering the handicap they were under.

The season was opened with Whittier at the round end of a 33-0 score with Pasadena.

The lightweights came back strong by next taking the tilt from Santa Ana, 18-0.

In a hard fight they managed to hold Alhambra to a 7-0 score in the next League match.

San Diego returned their compliment to Santa Ana by sending them home at the small end of an 18-0 score.

Again the lightweights came back from a loss and tied South Pasadena 12-12, although some of their best men had been injured in the San Diego game.

Glendale surprised them next with a score of 7 to 0.

The Long Beach game, which ended the season, was a sorry plight. The Bunnies let loose with their longest hops and gave the Whittier players a 44-6 score to moan over.

With a championship team coming on and part of the veterans of the thirties back, next year should be a championship season for the lightweights.

Class C Football

DURING the course of the last two years Whittier High's midgets have run into much difficulty because of the lack of a permanent coach. This year Don Douglas took hold of them and developed a championship team. They profited by his past experience in coaching Varsity football.

The diminutive team started the season by sending Pasadena home defeated with a score of 25-7.

The next two games were won by Whittier by 20 and 13 respectively over Santa Ana's and Alhambra's 0.

The following contest, with South Pasadena tipped first one way and then the other until finally the teams were tied 6-6.

Glendale was the next team to be defeated by our midgets. The score was 13-0.

The season ended with a heart-breaking 0-0 tie with Long Beach, the championship going to Long Beach.

Basketball

Varsity Basketball

WHEN THE first call was sounded for basketball, Whittier's hopes for the championship looked bright. Every man had returned from the 130's who were the runners up in the championship race in 1928.

Coach Don Douglas took this bunch of fellows plus other good material and developed a fast moving team. The Cards lost only two practice games during the time the boys were finding their shooting eyes.

Whittier High Cagers dropped their first game to the Pasadena Bulldogs in a contest which was closely fought from start to finish. The score at the end of the game was 18-16. The Whittier margin was far greater than the score shows, for during the second half the Bulldogs shot only two field goals due to the perfect guarding of Church and Warner. Captain Norris was high point man for Whittier with eight points.

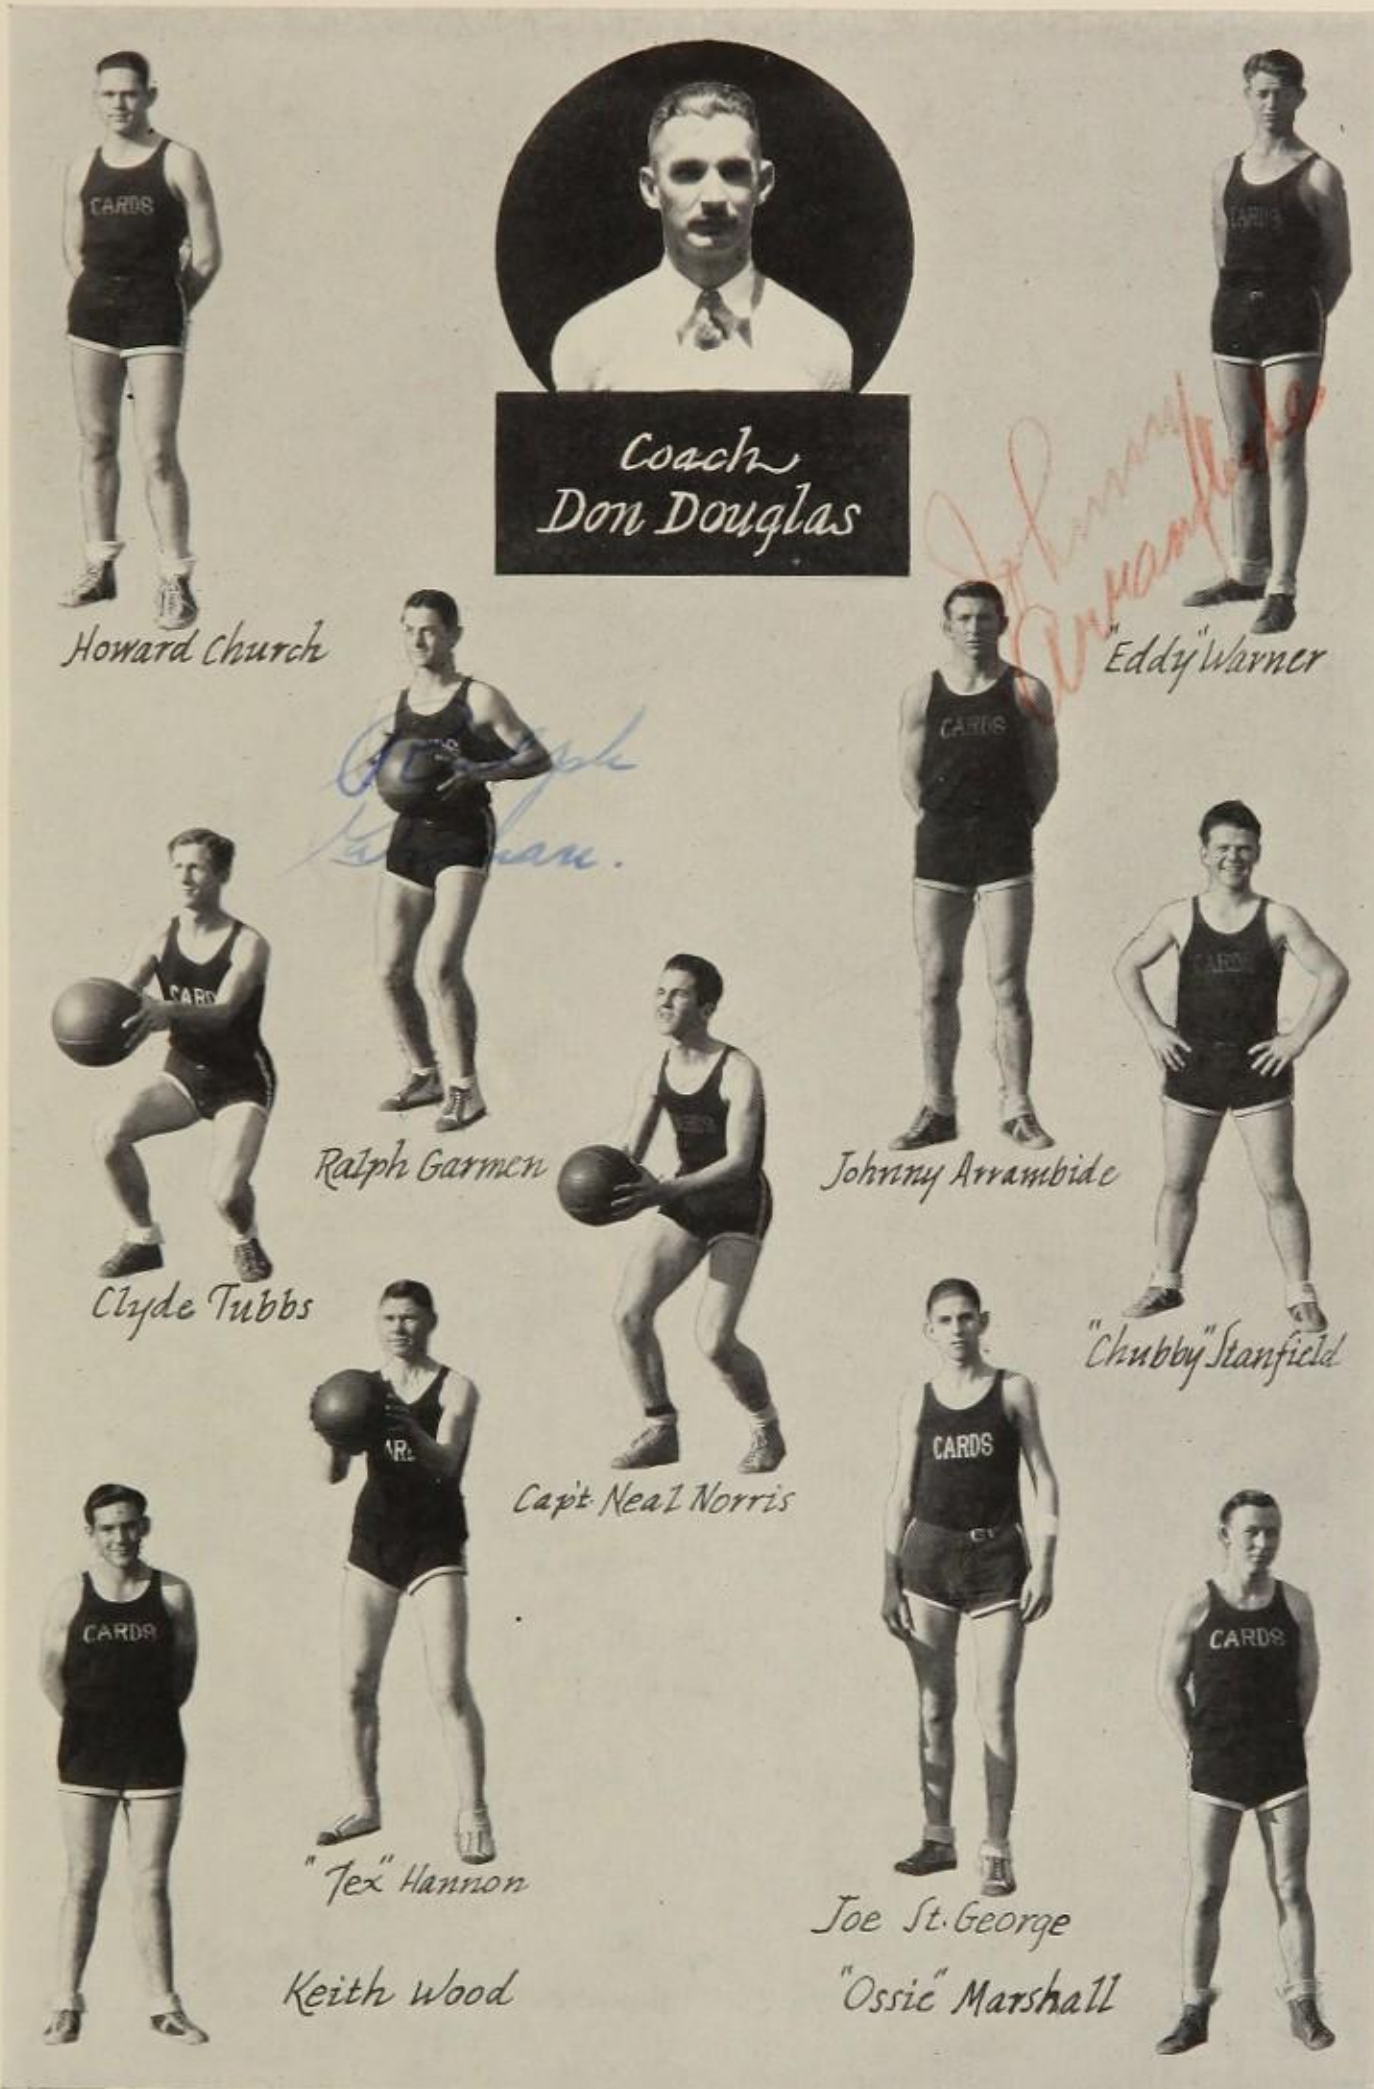

Whittier stayed in the race when they walked on the Santa Ana Saints in the first Varsity game in the new gym. The score at the whistle was 28-29. Captain Norris, Arrambide and Tubbs were the shining lights for Whittier during the course of the evening.

Next week Whittier went to Alhambra where the Cards had to fight for five quarters before they were able to put down the tough Moor. The game was full of thrills from start to finish. The Poet and the Moor were at a deadlock at the end of the regular playing time, and had to play an extra five minute period. At the end of the extra period neither team had scored, and it was necessary to play another five minutes. With the second period half gone Arrambide sank two baskets from near the center of the floor giving the Cardinals 30 points to the 26 of Alhambra. Arrambide and Captain Norris, along with the guards, were the outstanding stars of the game.

Whittier journeyed down to San Diego the next week and came back on the short end of a 40-31 score. The game was fast from start to finish, but the Southern five were too strong for the Whittier boys in the second half. Saunders was the outstanding star for San Diego, ringing up 19 points for high honor. Stanfield, Arrambide and Norris looked good for the Cards.

South Pasadena paid Whittier their annual visit this year and returned home defeated by the tune of 22-17. Whittier started out early in the game to ring up the baskets, and by the time the half rolled around the Cards were leading 17-8. Garman and Norris were the highlights of the game with Norris having the edge with the high point honors of 10.

The biggest surprise of the Coast League came when the weak Glendale Varsity defeated the strong Poet five 43-18. Glendale outplayed the Cards in every department of the game. Johns was high point man of the game with 18. Garman was Whittier's high point man with 8.

In the last league game Whittier went down to defeat at the hands of Long Beach 23-38.

Captain "Nick" Norris played a good season at center in all of his games. He was on the go all the time and usually took the tip off. His ability to find the basket from center and beyond gave the fans many thrills. Walker Hannon substituted at center and proved himself a tower of strength in trying situations. His height enabled him to get the tip off, and his shooting was up to par. Both of these fellows graduate this year.

At forward we had Ralph Garman, who starred in the 30's and was promoted to the Varsity to finish the season. His unusual ability to sink a basket from any place on the floor made him a very valuable player this year, and he will be with us next year.

Johnny Arrambide was Norris's right hand man and was where he was supposed to be every time. He was responsible for the victory at Alhambra and will prove invaluable next year.

Clyde Tubbs is a very good forward despite his size and will be back next year.

Joe St. George was a very shifty player and in one practice game piled up more points than the whole opposing team.

Howard Church, Eldred Warner and Leonard Stanfield defended the basket for the Cards. Church was fine on defense and offense. Every once in a while he would slip a basket in when the opponents were not looking and was sure to get the ball out of dangerous territory.

Warner was on a par with Church and dribbled the ball right through the opposing team. He was also good at shooting from behind center.

Stanfield despite his size could not be bluffed and all the shooting done by the enemy was over his head or from beyond the foul line. Only Warner remains for guard duty next year, but with the three other letter men and the thirties coming up Coach Douglas should put over a big season next year.

Class B Basketball

THE WHITTIER HIGH basketball lightweights played a very steady game throughout the season. Coach Don Douglas turned out a team that won four out of the seven league games played.

The thirties started out the season by trimming Pasadena by a score of 39-22.

Santa Ana in the next contest turned the tables and defeated our boys with a score of 27-21.

The middleweights came back strong from their minor defeat by netting thirty points to Alhambra's six.

In the next game Whittier lost to San Diego by 21-34.

The lightweights gained victories over South Pasadena and Glendale by scores of 24-18 and 32-17 respectively.

The thirties wound up the season by losing a hard-fought game with Long Beach.

Class C

WHITTIER HIGH has a skeeter team to be proud of. Al Whitcomb's flea weights round their way to league championship, turning in an unbroken chain of victories.

Trying their best to set a good example for the Varsity, the 10's gave Pasadena a 19-12 trouncing.

Their first game in the fine Perry Gym resulted in an 18-13 win over Santa Ana.

At Alhambra they set an example for the Varsity when they won an extra session game by a score of 21-19. Robinson scored the field goal.

South Pasadena fell to a 19-12 defeat.

Glendale was beaten by the comparatively close score of 24-8.

The bunnies from Long Beach limped home with the small end of an 18-6 score.

Porter and Logue were very close for high point honors, the former making 43 points and the latter 44 points in the league competition.

Those making up the championship team were Captain Robinson, Porter, Logue, Mifflin, Coon, Hedges, and Richardson.

Track

THIS YEAR the track team was a great aid to the athletic strength of Whittier High. There were quite a few stars on Coach Don Cole's track team including Kline, Walker, Maudlin, Wood, Perrin, and a number of others. "Don" Cole was assisted by Bob Strahl. These two, working together, developed some fine athletes. Kline, for his first year in a track career, did exceptionally well. He took third place in the Coast League which qualified him for the Southern California Semifinals, where he captured fifth place. Kline is an 880 yard man, good for another year. His best time this year was two minutes and five seconds. Walker, this year, was good for at least two first places in every dual meet. His time for the low hurdles was 26.2 seconds and for the high hurdles was 17 seconds. Perrin, although never officially clocked, often made the 100 yard dash in 10 seconds flat.

Whittier showed itself well in all of the meets. We did not compete in the Coast League this year, but engaged in four meets which counted toward letters. The season was opened by the inter-class track meet, won by the Juniors with a total of 58 points. The Seniors with 36 points took second place. The Sophomores managed third place with 11 points. The Freshmen brought up the rear with three points won by Ellis in the pole vault. In the first meet Whittier came through with a score of 49 to Alhambra's 64 points. By a score of 58 to 55, our boys defeated the Orange track squad in the next dual meet. Whittier, in her third meet, came up against one of the strong teams of the Coast League, South Pasadena. Although Whittier lost this meet, 41-72, she took many places. Walker was high point man in the meet with a total of 10 points.

Rodell C. Johnson

Our boys ended the season with a little hard luck. The meet was a triangular one, including Covina, Whittier, and Pomona College Freshmen. However our star, Walker, did not arrive until too late to compete in his field of events. With Walker's two first places, we could have nosed our Pomona Frosh, and then have given Covina a run for her money.

The tracksters that received letters this year were: Walker, high point man, Perrin, Hannon, Maudlin, Knisley, French, Kline, Hufford, Triggs, Ingram, E. Hunt, Tubbs and Wood.

With a few exceptions, all of these lettermen will be tearing up the cinders next year. Let us look forward to a bigger and better season next year in the field of track.

Baseball

THIS YEAR'S baseball season was rather adverse for the Cards due to the scarcity of good chuckers. The only games won were those with Santa Ana and South Pasadena. The former was annexed by a 15-11 score and the latter by a 15-10.

Nick Norris at second base and Tubbs at shortstop composed the keystone combination. Coots was the regular catcher and still has two years to play on the Varsity. Johnny Arrambide held down third, and his home runs combined with those of Tubbs will count for the Cards next year. Harold Stone played his last year at first and will be missed greatly on next season's team. The whole outfield was composed of Juniors; so next year's outfield will be intact. Warner played in left field, Horsey Walker in center, and Dick Imboden in right field accounted for the small number of safe hits by other teams. The pitcher's box was contested for by Pittman, Coon and Harron. None of the boys had had previous experience. All were heady, but as Coon is only a Sophomore he ought to prove valuable in the future.

Those receiving letters were: Neil Norris, Clyde Tubbs, Johnny Arrambide, Harold Stone, Clifford Pittman, Walker Hannon, Leonard Walker, Lawrence Coots, Richard Imboden, Eldred Warner.

Neil Norris, senior, and two year man on the baseball team, played an excellent game at second base. His batting average was high and Whittier loses a good all 'round athlete in Norris.

Clyde Tubbs is a sophomore and a two year baseball man. He played shortstop and lead-off man. His batting average was over .300 and he played in every game.

Johnny Arrambide is another two year man and also the most outstanding player on the team. He was one of the best third basemen in the league as well as being one of the best hitters. Johnny is our "king of swat," and acted as clean-up man.

Arrambide's batting average was well over .400. Whittier is very fortunate in having an athlete like Johnny, outstanding in every sport and voted as the best all 'round athlete in the school by the Varsity Club. Mr. Arrambide has two years to go, so just watch his smoke next year.

Harold Stone has played baseball for three years and is one of the most consistent players on the team.

Stone's batting average was high and he has the distinction of being the only left-handed player on the team.

Walker Hannon is another senior who played on the baseball team for the first time this season. Walker won his fourth varsity letter for the year at the pitcher's box. He and Pittman divided up the time on the diamond and both played a fine game for Whittier.

Baseball

Clifford Pittman, senior, played his first year on the baseball team this season. He won his letter on the pitching mound and did very well for his first year at the game.

Leonard Walker has played behind the bat on the baseball team, ever since his freshman year. This year he was shifted from catcher to second field because of his speed. "Horsey" was the best center fielder in the league and his batting average was next to Arrambide's. We expect great things from Leonard next year, in football and track as well as in baseball.

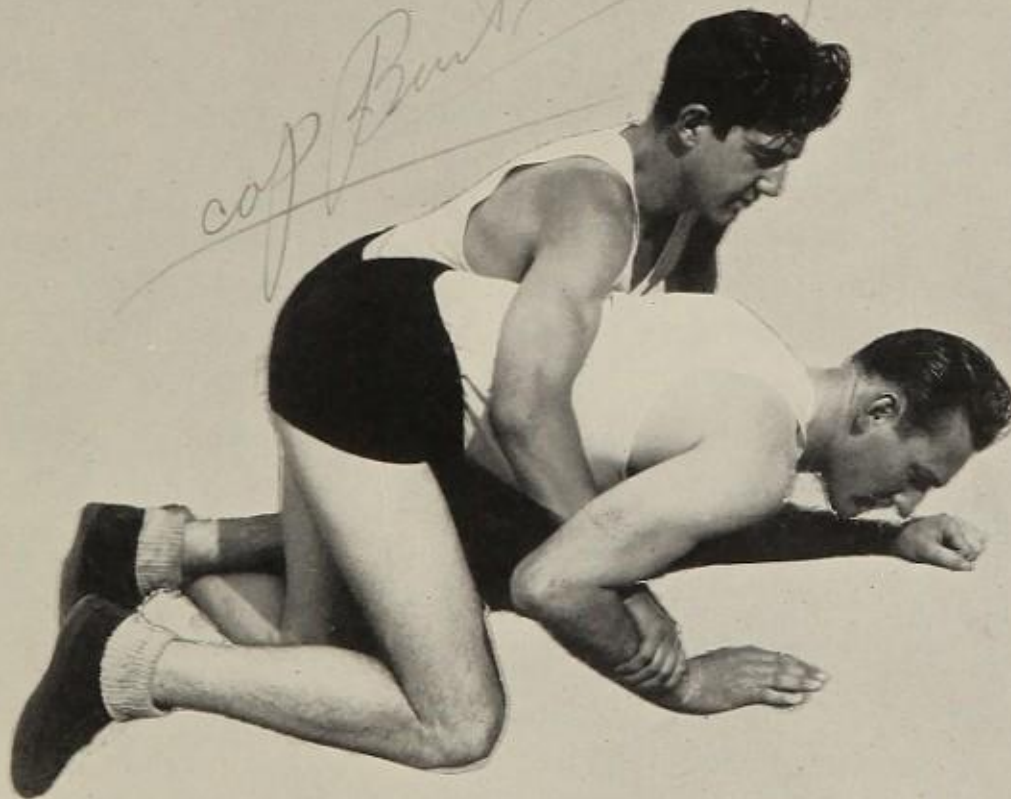

Laurence Coots capably filled Walker's former position behind the bat. He was a good consistent catcher with a good batting average. Coots has two years to go and promises to become one of the stars of the league.

Richard Imboden is another sophomore who capably filled a position in the out field. His batting was average and "Dick" has all the points of developing into a future star on the diamond.

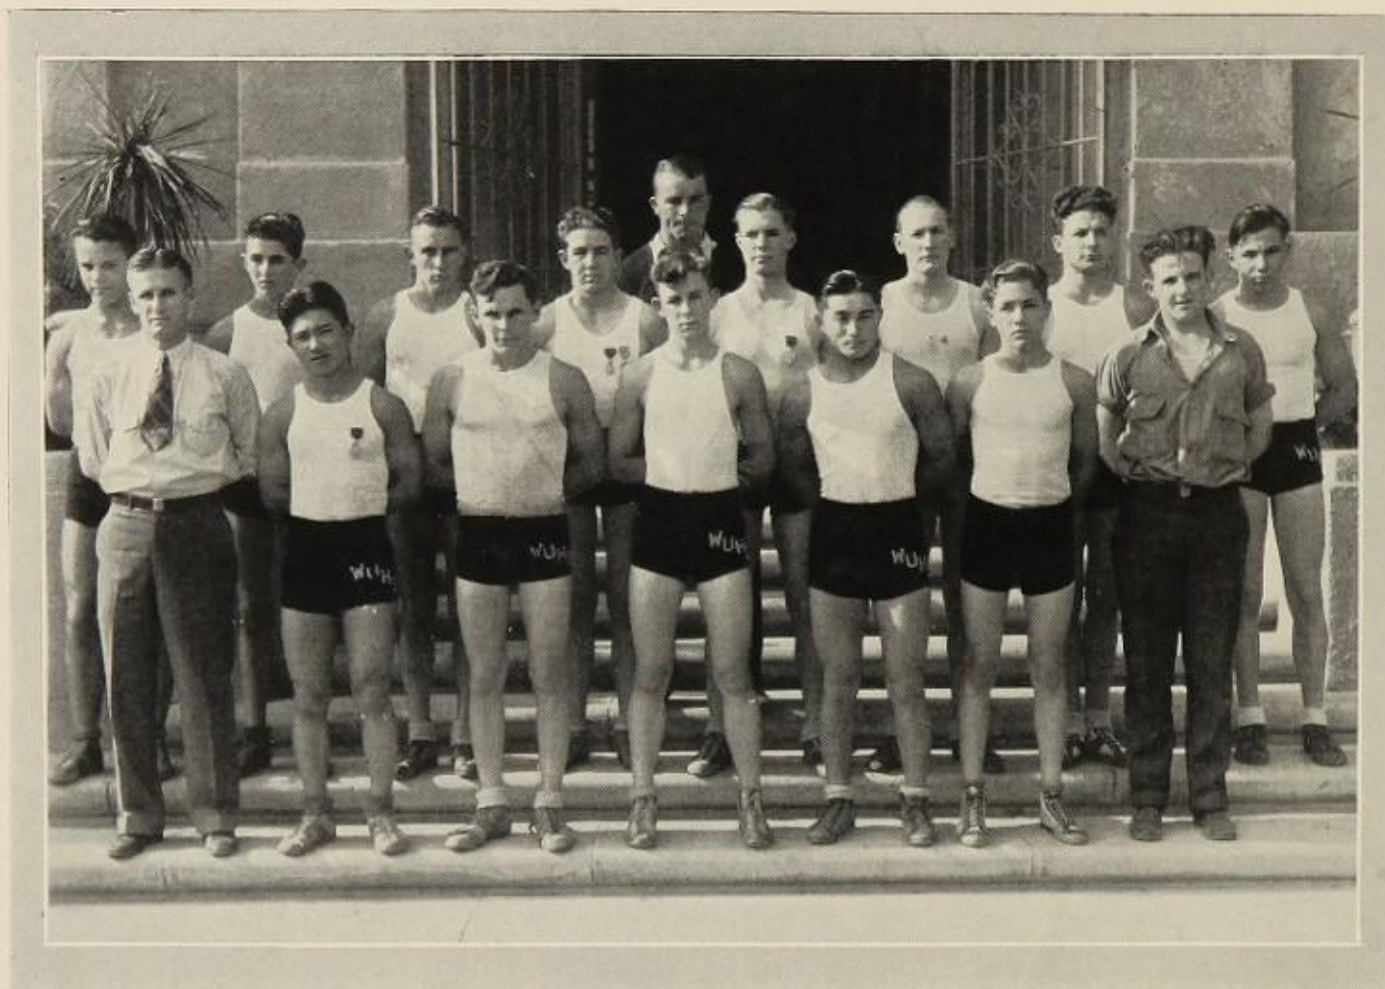

Eldred Warner was one of the best outfielders in the league. He has a good eye and should develop into an excellent batter. Warner has one more year and he certainly is a fine prospect.

Robert Courtney, Edward Coon, and "Sandy" Triggs, won their letters as utility men. Courtney & Coon both played in the outfield and infield. Coon pitched in the Glendale and South Pasadena games and showed up exceedingly well. Triggs played in the outfield and was one of the most reliable men on the team. He's another of our excellent prospects for the coming season.

Minor Sports

Wrestling

Wrestling

COACH WALT WEGNER turned out a wrestling team to be proud of this year. Although six of last year's lettermen returned, he was handicapped because four of them, Umeda, Killingsworth, Parsons and Brown, each weighed about 132 pounds. Some promising wrestlers were made out of the raw material for the other weights. Downey and Tarumoto were returning letter men who helped fill in the vacant places.

The first match was held with Pasadena at home and resulted in a 23-3 victory for Whittier. Santa Ana next fell to the tune of 3-26 and then the tide changed. Alhambra scored a 12½-10½ win which should not have been made. Glendale beat Alhambra 17-8, and Whittier beat Glendale 16-6; so the Whittier-Alhambra match should have never been lost. San Diego took the fourth match 21-5 and Long Beach the sixth 17-3.

As a result of these matches Whittier tied with Long Beach for third place having won three and lost three.

In the Southern California Tournament they also took third being headed by only San Diego and Long Beach.

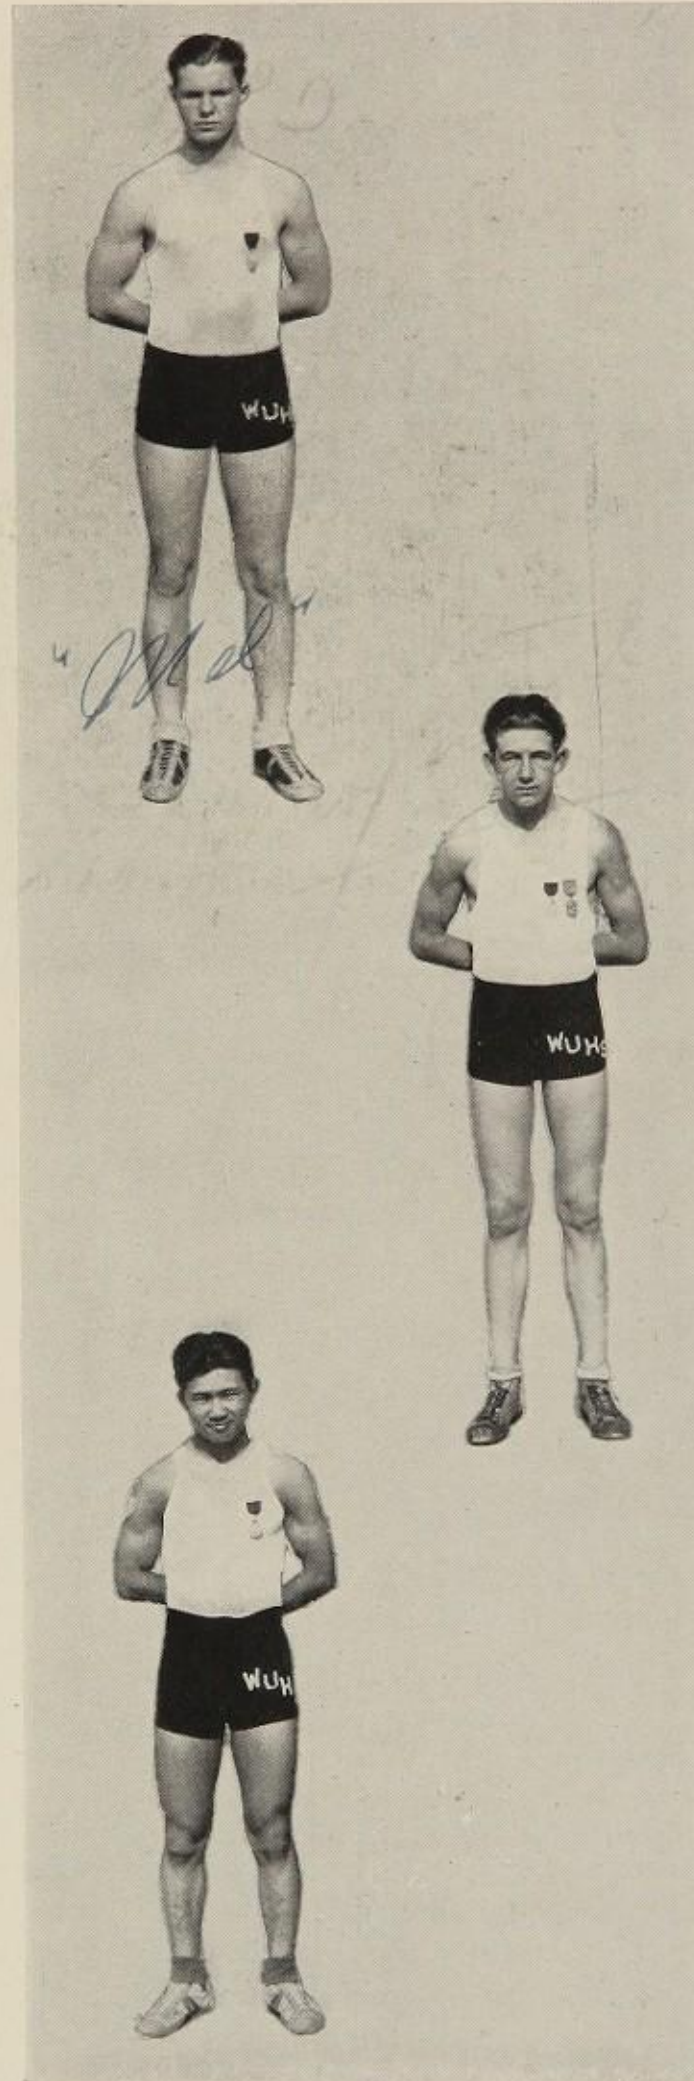

Captain Bert Killingsworth, George Tarumoto, Don Croskrey, Clifford Koon, Robert Downey, Harold Brown, Prince Rusk, Hayden Almendinger, Melvin Wilcox, and Paul Batson received letters, and six of them remain for next year, Tarumoto and Downey with two years experience.

Champions

Wilcox

160 lbs.

This was Melvin Wilcox's first year at wrestling, but he won four and lost two matches in dual competition, wrestling at 160 pounds and weighing only 151 pounds. In the Southern California Tournament he wrestled welterweight, taking two falls and one decision to carry him to the finals. He suffered a pulled muscle in the last bout which caused him to forfeit the bout, he might easily have won. This gave him second place.

Killingsworth

130 lbs.

This was Captain Bert Killingsworth's second year at wrestling. He weighed 130 pounds and wrestled in dual meets in featherweight and lightweight divisions. In the Pacific Coast Amateur Championship, Bert took second place in featherweight division at Hollywood A. C. one week before the Southern California Championship tournament held at Glendale May 26. In the Southern California Tournament he took first place by three straight falls, the final bout against a San Diego man who had not been defeated in the last two years.

Taramuto

114 lbs.

George Taramuto also has had two years experience at wrestling. He weighed 114 pounds. In the Pacific Coast Amateur Championship he took second place losing a very close decision in the finals to a man with seven years' experience. George has two more years in school and should do wonders in that time.

Golf

ALTHOUGH golf is a comparatively new sport at Whittier High, the School golfers at present look fine for the golf championship of Southern California.

After an untarnished record in league competition, Whittier has only one team to conquer for the championship, at the time of this writing.

Long Beach Woodrow Wilson fell under a 3-2 score closely followed by a 5-0 victory over Pasadena. Alhambra trailed the team for one-half point against Whittier's four and one-half. Fullerton suffered a 5-0 defeat as did South Pasadena. Glendale fared a little better with the little end of a 4-1 score. In the final league game, Whittier took a three and one half to one and one half win from Long Beach Poly High.

In the play-off for Southern California Championship, North Hollywood was defeated 5-0. This left only the strong Glendale team to be played at the time of this publication.

Captain Harold Stone played first man and was always close to par. Cecil Harris, Mifflin, Jopes, and Croskrey played fine golf under the leadership of Captain Stone, who graduates this year.

Tennis

THE TENNIS TEAM suffered a poor season, winning two games out of five in league competition. After losing one game out of nine in practice tilts, the Card netsters lost to Pasadena with a 3-14 score. They came back and took the Santa Ana tilt with a 9-8 score. Alhambra and South Pasadena both took wins, but Long Beach suffered to the tune of 15-2.

At the time of publication there was one more game to be played and the Cards had a chance to bring up their average.

Ralph Garman, who played first man, has two more years to devote to the team. Harold Demarest, Donald Crawford, and Bill Vaughn vary with from one to three years left to play on the team as singles. Albert Woodard and Thurlo Ashton have another year at doubles, while the Clifford Edmonston—Allan Hunt combination finish this year. Judging from this wealth of material for next year, Whittier High should develop a fine team.

The G. A. A.

THIS YEAR has certainly been a successful one for the G. A. A., an organization for the promotion of clean sportsmanship and interest in athletics among the girls of the school. A new system was adopted last year for the earning of a letter, a seven and one-half inch Old English "W."

On March 2, the G. A. A. sponsored a Play Day for the first time in its history. The schools which helped to make it a success were Long Beach, Polytechnic, Huntington Park, Glendale, Fullerton, Alhambra, Compton, and Whittier. The morning was spent in playing basketball, baseball, speed ball, tennis, and volley ball. After a very enjoyable program at noon, the girls watched the swimming races, following which the pool was open to everyone. Whittier was victorious in basketball, speed ball, volley ball, and tennis. The day was voted a success by everyone.

The officers of the G. A. A. are as follows:

President	Martha Roark
Vice President	Jean Mogridge
Secretary	Marian Tooze
Treasurer	Estelle Evans
Volley Ball Manager.....	Isabell Hill
Basketball Manager	Leona Mifflin
Baseball Manager	Mary Jane Glass
Tennis Manager	Betty Benson
Swimming Manager	Meryle Cornelius
Hiking Manager	Eldora Clopton
Speed Ball Manager.....	Doris Field

Girls' Speed Ball

SPEED BALL was introduced in Whittier High School only last year, but it was received with such enthusiasm that it had as much support this year as any of the older sports. After practicing for several weeks, the class teams were matched with the result that the Sophomores carried off the championship by winning a very close game from the Seniors.

Those on the championship team were: Isabelle Hill, Marian Tooze, Hope Lewis, Beulah Temple, Marian McGregor, Dorothy Kaltenbach, Hazel Burt, Mary Montgomery, Helena Dingle, Arlene Davidson, Margaret Gregg, Florence Glass, Adele Parks, and Martha Roark.

The Senior team, being such a close rival for the championship, deserves much credit too. The members were: Pauline Petty (captain), Betty Benson, Dorothy Cummings, Virginia Keasbey, Ila May Forbes, Leona Mifflin, Marilee Mitchell, Crystal Kampert, Mary Ella Mitchener, Estelle Evans, Ruth Coots, Catherine Oldham, Meryle Cornelius, and Barbara Smith.

After the interclass games had been played, the school team was chosen. Those who played on the varsity were: Betty Benson, Dorothy Cummings, Pauline Petty, Leona Mifflin, Hazel Burt, Crystal Kampert, Hope Lewis, Isabelle Hill, Mary Montgomery, Beulah Temple, Marian McGregor, Louise Stanfield, Evelyn Trowbridge, and Ruth Coots.

At a Play Day given by the Whittier G. A. A. on March 2, 1929, this team defeated the Glendale team by a score of 21 to 3. Because speed ball is practically a new game, at Whittier, our team was very proud of this victory, for the Glendale girls had played the game since they had entered high school.

Girls' Volley Ball

MUCH ENTHUSIASM was shown by the girls, especially the freshmen, as the first sport of the year started. After two hard-fought games with the sophomores, the seniors took the championship in the interclass games.

Those on the championship team were Harriett Aiken, Dorothy Cummings, Meryle Cornelius, Leona Mifflin, Barbara Smith, Ruth Coots, Mary Ella Mitchener, Mary Kaufman, Marie Phelan, Estelle Evans, and Catherine Oldham, captain.

When all of the class games had been played, the school team was chosen. It is as follows: Harriett Aiken, Mary Ella Mitchener, Dorothy Cummings, Louise Stanfield, Ruby Gambol, Ethel Milner, Elsie Benbow, Catherine Oldham, Dorothy Kaltenbach, and Marian McGregor.

The following class managers under the leadership of Eldora Clopton were responsible for the successful season: Dorothy Cummings (senior), Elsie Benbow (junior), Isabel Hill (sophomore), and Marian Prince (freshman).

Girls' Basketball

THIS YEAR'S basketball season was one of the best Whittier High has ever known. After practicing for several weeks the class teams played games for the championship. The Sophomores took the championship away from the Seniors by a score of 32 to 26.

Doris Field, the general manager, was largely responsible for the success of the season. The managers of the four teams also deserve credit. They are: Catherine Oldham (Senior), Pauline Hudson (Junior), Florence Glass (Sophomore), and Frances Cogill (Freshman).

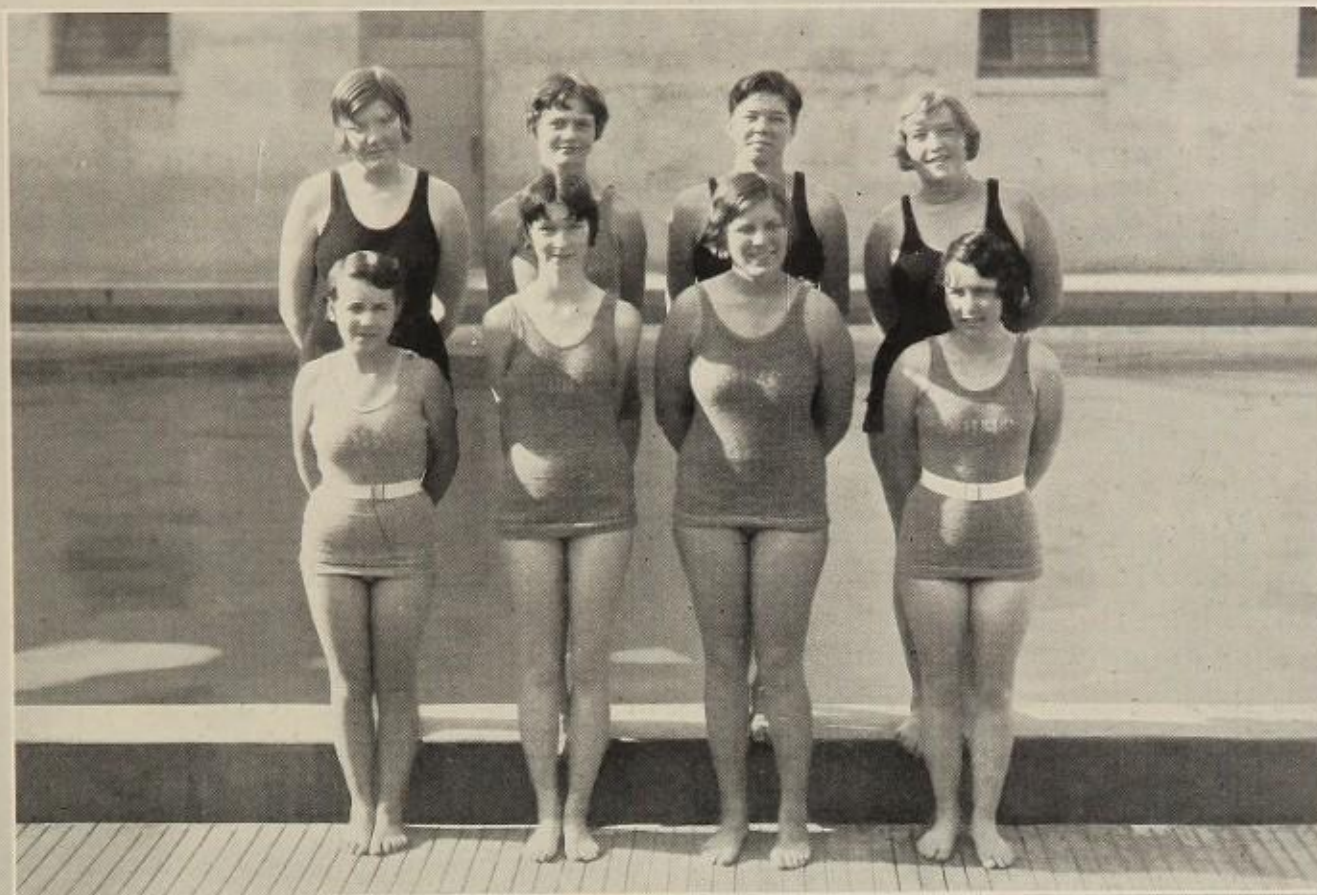

Those on the Sophomore championship team are: Captain Isabelle Hill, Mary Montgomery, Arlene Davidson, Dorothy Kaltenbach, Beulah Temple, Marian Tooze, Mary Weinshank, Nellie Bishop, and Georgenia Jackson.

When the interclass games had been played the all star team was chosen. The following members were selected: Isabelle Hill, Catherine Oldham, Arlene Davidson, Ruth Coots, Eliza Gaskill, and Dorothy Cummings. Honorable mention was given to Audrey Claxton, Dorothy Kaltenbach, and Louise Hawley.

Girls' Baseball

THIS YEAR the championship is between the Freshmen and Sophomores so far. The Freshmen beat the Juniors and tied the Sophomores. Those on the Freshmen team are: Captain Louise Stanfield, Mildred Frazier, Ruby Gambol, Lois Ruble, Laurabel Samson, Reba Durham, Frances Cogill, Audrey Claxton, Lois Collins, Gladys Barkley, and Ethel Haney. The Sophomore team is: Captain Beulah Temple, Isabelle Hill, Dorothy Kaltenbach, Hazel Burt, Martha Roark, Mary Weinshank, Georgenia Jackson, Nellie Bishop, Helen Grain, Pauline Farmer, Arlene Davidson, Odell West, Vera Holloway, and Dorothy Davidson.

Girls' Swimming

THE GIRLS did not turn out for swimming this year as well as last year because there were so many girls out for baseball at the same time. No Freshmen came out at all. The Sophomores have Florence Glass out for diving, Margaret Gregg for the relay and form, Marian Tooze for the relay and form, Martha Houghton and Hope Lewis for the underwater swimming, and Eleanor Tebbetts for miscellaneous. The Juniors have Elsie Benbow and Doris Field for the relay, Mary Jane Glass for underwater and diving, and Charlotte Swearingen for miscellaneous. The Seniors have Gertrude Johnson and Leona Mifflin for the relay, Marilee Mitchell for underwater swimming, and Barbara Smith for form.

Famous Athletes of Whittier High

PROBABLY first and foremost in Whittier High School athletic annals stands the remarkable basketball group which won five Southern California championships in as many years and won the state title for two years. Athletically great names and some name well-nigh forgotten grace this group. Wallace Hood, Paul Woollomes, Lonnie Jones, Alex McBurney, Cecil Merrick, Grant Bergen, Stew Beam, Gil Parker, Bill Lester and Joe Buckmaster are among those who played during the five years of supremacy in basketball, 1912-1917.

Woollomes, Beam, and Buckmaster were great football players. Beam was an all-American at the University of California, while Buckmaster played notably at Whittier College.

Hood became Whittier High's best known professional baseball player. After playing some years in the major leagues, he joined the Coast League, in which he has been playing for several years.

An athlete of a later day was Millard Scott, who was a tackle on the football team in high school, and who later captained the Oregon Aggies in his senior year.

Lowry McCaslin, Oak Pendleton, Tom Denney, and Speed Weaver are Whittier High boys who later became great as college football players. Pendleton was also a great sprinter; Denney played baseball; while Weaver and McCaslin became great basketball stars.

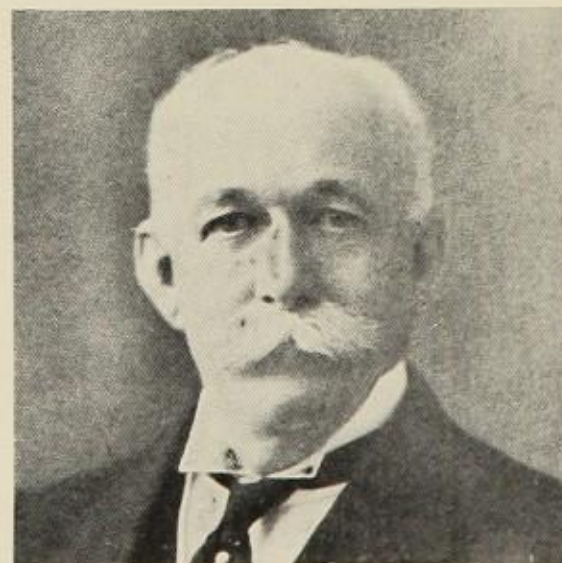

Harold Jones, 1913, was Whittier's greatest sprinter. Deb Johnson is still known in Whittier as an "iron man" on the track for Whittier teams of five years ago.

Art Partridge was famous as a football and basketball star, while Jack Shade, of the class of '18, is still the school's most noted home-run hitter.

Of a recent generation, Don Hauser and Allen Landreth are well-remembered as athletes and sportsmen. Hauser won his football letter for four years.

The list of truly fine athletes and sportsmen is long. Mention might be made of the Elliott brothers, who later were college stars, Ken Pomeroy, Pete Pendleton, Bill Rich, Charles McGrory, Wallie Rusk, Wayne Adams, and many others of more recent period.

HENRY E. HUNTINGTON, has rendered two invaluable services to Southern California. One lies in the unification of the cities around Los Angeles, brought about by his development of inter-urban railway lines. The other lies in the endowment to the public of his wonderful Huntington Library and Art Gallery at San Marino. This library, which includes the world's greatest collection of books, pictures, statuary, and other art treasures, has been a great encouragement to scholarship in Southern California.*

KILLINGSWORTH

California

'Twixt the seas and the deserts,
'Twixt the wastes and the waves,
Between the sands of buried lands
And ocean's coral caves,
It lies not East nor West,
But like a scroll unfurled,
Where the hand of God hath hung it,
Down the middle of the world.

It lies where God hath spread it,
In the gladness of His eyes,
Like a flame of jeweled tapestry
Beneath his shining skies;
With the green of woven meadows,
And the hills in golden chains,
The light of leaping rivers,
And the flash of poppied plains.

Days rise that gleam in glory,
Days die with sunset's breeze,
While from Cathay that was of old
Sail countless argosies;
Morns break again in splendor
O'er the giant, new-born West
But of all the lands God fashioned,
'Tis this land is the best.

Sun and dews that kiss it,
Balmy winds that blow,
The stars in clustered diadems
Upon its peaks of snow;
The mighty mountains o'er it,
Below, the white seas swirled—
Just California stretching down
The middle of the world.
